Bevin Says People Must Work Out Own Economic Recovery

Germans Face Three More Months of Hunger

From BUP and AP Dispatches

LONDON, May 15 — Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin forecast today that the grave food shortage in Germany would last for at least three more months, and said the German people themselves must "work their passage back to economic recovery."

IN A REVIEW of foreign affairs Bevin told the House of Comons that Great Britain was in constant touch with the United States on the vital problem of food and production for Germany, and would try to help her.

Observing that all the world was short of food as a result of the war for which Germany was responsible, Bevin said better rations for the Germans could not be achieved unless the Germans themselves face up to their problems and pitch in to contribute to their own recovery.

Bevin said American and British representatives in Germany had reached "such an agreement as will enable the operation of our fusion arrangement to function successfully."

ANGLO-AMERICAN agreement on the economic merger of their occupation zones was announced at the meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers in New York last winter.

Meanwhile the United States pledged stepped-up food shipments to Germany to meet the crisis.

With sporadic food strikes and demonstrations already occurring there, secretary of state, Robert P. Patterson said food shipments

Discuss Terms Of Hotel Lease

Negotiations started Thursday between city commissioners and representatives of Inland Investment Co., Ltd., on the terms of the lease under which a $500,000 hotel of 50 rooms would be built on the Edmonton airport.

At Monday night's city council meeting aldermen agreed in principle to the granting of a lease to erect the structure, and referred to the commissioners for report such details as the length of lease to be granted, the location of the building and its construction details. Also referred was the question of rental and assessment of the property.

"Joint Capital"

BERLIN, May 15—(Reuters)—American and British military governments in Germany will shortly begin transferring all bi-zonal agencies to a new "joint capital" in Frankfurt, in the United States zone. The agencies were set up under the economic fusion of the two zones Jan. 2.

Swim Articles Start Friday

Learn to swim. More and more knowledge of swimming is a "must" for both grownups and children. This year more Albertans are taking advantage of organized group instruction than ever before. But children are frightened out of the water for life by wrong teaching methods.

To serve these groups and individuals in both city and country, Fred McDermott, Vancouver famous lifesaving swimming instructor and coach, will commence in The Edmonton Bulletin on Friday a course in swimming.

Watch for the first lesson in the course—in Friday's Bulletin. Cut it out and each of the succeeding lessons, so that you may have in the assembled clippings a complete course of swimming lessons for useful study.

More than 1,200 friends and relatives attended the ceremony to witness 400 graduating students receive degrees and diplomas. About 200 students graduated in absentia. Top picture shows a view of the auditorium from the platform, in the foreground of the centre section are the crisp uniformed, white-capped nurses. Elsewhere are black-gowned graduates, wearing mortar boards and graduating hoods. There are also many parents and friends eager to see students receive degrees and diplomas. Hundreds were jammed the balcony. Below Dr. G. F. McNally, university chancellor, confers the degree of honorary doctor of laws on Chief Justice W. R. Howson, of the trial division, supreme court of Alberta, at the extreme right. Between them are seated university president Dr. Robert Newton, left, and F. E. Osborne, Calgary. Call Mountbatten Home From India

LONDON, May 15.—(BUP)—The government today summoned Viscount Mountbatten home from India for consultations on his proposals regarding the method by which Great Britain will pull out of India.

Mountbatten, Viceroy of India, was called back "in view of the importance of these arrangements to the future of India," a statement from No. 10 Downing Street said.

The statement said the government was in "general agreement" with Mountbatten's proposals, but felt it "should have final discussions with the Viceroy before an announcement is made."

The London visit of Mountbatten will be short, and will be made "as soon as possible" so that he can be back in India by early June, the statement said.

Declares Britain Will Win In End

AYR, Scotland, May 15.—(AP)—Winston Churchill said today that Britain would continue to play a leading role in world affairs, "albeit not in the full stature of former days." Accepting the freedom of Ayr, the wartime prime minister said "it is my unconquerable faith that if we have hard times ahead—I will never admit the words 'despair' on British lips.—We shall come through the difficulties in the end."

Cannot Prophesy Future If It Fails

Bevin Says London Conference Probably Most Vital in History

By Homer Jenks

LONDON, May 15 (BUP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told Commons today that none could prophesy the future course of the world if the next conference of the Big Four foreign ministers in November fails.

BEVIN OPENING TWO days of debate on foreign affairs, told the house that he regarded the November conference as "probably the most vital in the world's history."

"As a result of the Moscow Conference we know what we have to face at the next council of foreign ministers" Bevin told the packed chamber.

"If it (the next meeting) is unduly delayed, then the difficulties will get worse instead of better.

"If so many of these issues—Germany and Austria and in addition relations between the east and the west—have not been brought to a much more satisfactory conclusion in November at the London Conference, no one can propitiously see the course the world will take."

BEVIN ADOPTED A conciliatory attitude toward the rebel members of the Labor party who have been criticizing the government's foreign policy.

"I give the house an assurance," he said, "that the government will take into account any points or suggestions that are made."

The rebels have been demanding that Britain reorient her policy to a closer alignment with Russia and a less intimate friendship with the United States.

Bevin reminded Commons that he said before he left for Moscow that it would be wrong to expect too much from the conference with regard to the German treaty.

"I WOULD ASK the house to recognize that the form in which we create the new Germany, the methods adopted for its government, and the mapping out of its future position in the society of nations will take a long time to realize," he said.

Prepare New Drive On China's Reds

NANKING, May 15—(AP)—The government manoeuvered its troops today for a new campaign to crush the Communists in Shantung province, where it says they have been driven from mountain redoubts.

A delayed dispatch from Tsingtao quoted government military circles as predicting that within three weeks the Communists in Shantung would be "crushed and reduced to small, scattered groups."

The last time the government "crushed" the Communists in Shantung, they bounced right back and seized the nationalist base of Tsian. They government only recently recaptured Tsian).

They declared that only "scattered remnants and bands" in the mountains remained to be mopped up before an offensive was opened against the remainder of the Communist new 4th Army.

Firemen believed she was upstairs in bed when the fire broke out in the kitchen.

Mystics Offer Solve Mystery Of TCA Plane

VANCOUVER, May 15—(CP)—Mystics claiming strange and weird powers were still telephoning Trans-Canada Airlines officials and RCAF search headquarters here offering to point out the exact spot where the missing TCA transport is down. The plane disappeared late on the night of April 28 with 15 persons aboard.

One of the most unique offers came from a man with a machine closely resembling a cash register. He claimed that all that was needed was to punch the available data, such as speed, number of passengers, gas supply, etc., and jerk a lever. Whistles would blow and the whole thing would light up, he said, and the location of the wreck would drop out on a piece of paper.

Search officials declined to comment on the success of the device.

Two offers were received by men with divining rods.

Another man chartered an aircraft and flew over the Straits of Georgia with a strip of duralumin between his teeth, claiming that the metal would waver and point in the direction of the wreck. The airliner still is missing.

Palestine Inquiry Committee Set Up

BY ROBERT MANNING

United Nations Hall, Flushing, N.Y., May 15 (BUP)—The United Nations General Assembly today named an 11-nation special committee to study the Palestine problem and appealed to the people of the Holy Land to observe a truce for the duration of the inquiry.

IN A SUDDEN surge of speed, the general assembly stamped its approval on the membership of its Palestine inquiry commission.

The 11-nation "neutral" commission named included: Australia, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Guatemala, India, Iran, Netherlands, Peru, Sweden, Uruguay and Yugoslavia. Neither the big five powers nor the Arab states were represented.

The vote on approving the commission was 40 nations in favor, none opposed and 11 abstentions. The five Arab states and the Soviet bloc, which had battled for the big five to serve on the commission, were the nations which abstained.

THE ARAB DELEGATES, some of whom had declared that they may result from UN's refuse' to consider independence for Palestine, abstained from voting on the truce proposal.

But Assembly President Oswaldo Aranhan of Brazil ruled that the vote had been unanimous because there had not been any dissenting votes.

The special session on the Palestine problem was ended at 11:56 a.m. MDT.

Lewis, Coal Firms To Discuss Contract

WASHINGTON, May 15—(AP)—John L. Lewis agreed today to try to negotiate a wage contract with operators representing about 75 per cent of the United States' soft coal production. The Southern Coal Producers association, which refused to go along on industry-wide bargaining with Lewis' United Mine Workers, asked for separate negotiations. Most of the country's soft coal mines are under government control, but must be restored to private ownership by July 1.

Bishop Declares:

"Dare Not Forget" Suffering of Greeks

Because such an attitude would run counter to "every natural impulse of our people," Canadians will not remain callously indifferent to the human sufferings in Greece, the Right Rev. W. F. Barfoot, Anglican bishop of Edmonton, said Thursday in adding his voice to the growing support of the current Canadian Relief to Greece campaign.

The national drive is for $1,500,000 with northern Alberta's part of that total set at $40,000. A committee of Edmonton business and professional men was organized recently to direct the northern Alberta campaign.

In his appeal, Bishop Barfoot said:

"Impoverished by war and torn by civil strife the people of Greece are in a pitiable condition and many of them are starving. We dare not forget that much of her suffering is the result of her courageous stand with us against our enemies. She valiantly withstood Mussolini's brutal assault and only succumbed to the powerful invasion by Germany because we could not successfully defend her. Gratitude for sacrifices made, in common cause with us, should therefore, move us to respond generous-

Two Trains Blasted, 3 Bridges Damaged

By Eliav Simon

JERUSALEM, May 15 — (BUP)— Two Arab children at play set off a tumult of gunfire, sirens and racing armored cars in Jerusalem today when British forces mobilized to repel what they mistook for a Jewish underground attack.

Nerves were on edge because of an all-night underground attack on Palestine railroads in which two trains, one a freight and another carrying 800 troops, were derailed by land mines. The freight engineer was injured.

Two British bomb disposal officers were killed while removing a railroad mine. Five other persons were reported injured in the attacks.

GENERAL ALARM sirens alerted the city and the jittery population ducked for cover and word spread that the underground had tried to blow up a government building.

A few minutes later the all clear sounded. Nobody could find the supposed attack. The armored cars and emergency squads went home.

Police finally discovered that the cause of it all was two Arab children who had found an airplane flare among the ancient tombs of the Mamillah Cemetery. They ran when challenged by police. The police chased them, somebody interpreted the incident as part of an elaborate attack and the defence machinery was touched off.

TWO COACHES of the troop train were derailed near Haifa. The freight train was knocked from the tracks near Rehovot. The Palestine railways general

Death Toll Mounts In India Rioting

LAHORE, India, May 15—(Reuters)—Police opened fire today for the second consecutive day as the death roll in communal disturbances in this walled old city, capital of the Punjab, rose to 16.

Seven more persons injured yesterday died today and one person suffering from gunshot wounds was admitted to hospital.

In the Mochi Gateway area, one of the main trouble spots in the city, police fired on rioting crowds and fresh cases of arson were reported.

In the northwest frontier province a 24-hour curfew was imposed.

A pitched battle among Hindus, Sikhs and Moslems broke out in the Kasera Bazaar in the heart of Lahore after bitter fighting in the Mochi Gate.

Hundreds of home-made incendiary bombs were used in last night's disturbances. Opposing sides threw stones, pieces of rock, and firebalis at each other from roofs.

PARIS, May 15.—(Reuters)—The French independent conservative newspaper Figaro carried reports today that native rebels "soaked with drink and made fanatical by native sorcerers" are gaining ground in Madagascar, where a separatist revolt broke out early in April.

Flood Waters Reported Receding

Flood waters which threatened the entire Slave Delta in the North West Territories were reported receding today but there was no word regarding the situation of men at the Jean River sawmill, who yesterday were said to be stranded on the roof of a building.

There has been no radio communication with Jean River since Tuesday.

Western Army Command said a radio message from Resolution, NWT, advised them "water at old Fort Sawmill slowly receding. Ice jam at Fort Syme starting to move. No further information on situation at Jean River."

The report said Royal Canadian Mounted Police and natives would attempt to reach Jean River from Resolution by canoe and motor launch, and that army signal personnel would also make the attempt when ice jams in the river broke.

LAST NIGHT it was reported a small aircraft was ordered to investigate the situation of the men and render assistance if necessary but the radio message said there was no plane suitably equipped with floats at Yellowknife or Fort Smith.

All tributaries of Slave river were jammed with ice which flooded the surrounding district.

There was little word coming out of the flooded area because of the lack of radio communication and all information was being relayed through Resolution.

The report added there was no danger to Resolution.

Canadian Warships In Fleet Operation

LONDON, May 15.—(CP)— The Admiralty announced today that Canadian warships participated in three-week-long West Indies naval operations during which the 47-year-old tug St. Hilarey, formerly attached to Bermuda, served as a target for night firing. "The Warrior provided air co-operation, which was particularly appreciated by the commander of the station," it added.

Considered Russian Propaganda

Film Role Forced on Actor

LOS ANGELES, May 15 (AP)— A statement that Robert Taylor was forced to act in the movie "Song of Russia," which he considered Russian propaganda, was made yesterday by Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (Rep.-N.J.) of a house committee on Un-American affairs.

Thomas told newspaper men that Taylor had informed him and other committee members at a closed hearing that a War Production Board official "whose name we still must check," delayed Taylor's entrance into the Navy Air Corps until he had completed the role.

However Taylor told reporters last night that he reported the Washington official involved in his case was from the Office of War Information, not the WPB.

Donald Nelson, now heading the Society of Independent Motion Picture Producers in Hollywood but chief of the WPB in 1943 when "Song of Russia" was filmed, denied in an interview that the WPB could have had any possible connection with the Taylor incident.

Good Food Plan Endorsed

BY JAMES McCOOK

SCHEVENINGEN, Holland, May 15.—(CP)—Canada today took the lead at the first annual meeting of the international Federation of Agricultural producers with a plain-spoken demand for action rather than words to ensure stability for food producers and consumers.

Delegates of many countries clustered about H. H. Hannam of Ottawa, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, who read the Canadian statement. He received assurances of their support after he said that although there had been no international food conferences they failed to make "any substantial move" to alter common trade practices.

This meeting, Hannam said, must give "constructive support to the ideal of a new world food program."

J. K. Knowles of he United Kingdom congratulated the Canadian spokesman and endorsed the Dominion's views.

Greeks Need Aid

ly to help her in the present tragic plight.

"But if we do not feel any deep sense of personal gratitude—which God forbid—we should at least be moved to give generously from simple humanitarian motives. In the face of unbelievable human suffering Canadians will not remain callously indifferent. Such an attitude would run counter to every natural impulse of our people.

"There is, however, a still higher claim resting squarely upon us. It is the claim of Christian charity. This claim rests upon the consciences of all who in this land name the name of Christ. Greece is a Christian nation fighting for her life against colossal odds. Canadian Christendom will respond to the needs of the ravaged people of this tragic nation to which civilization owes an unpayable debt."

Reports from Greece indicate a grim picture of postwar life there. About 1,300,000 men, women and children are homeless, with about 375,000 of them orphans. One meal daily, usually consisting of bread, is all most families can manage. It is to ease such conditions that the Relief to Greece campaign is aimed. Funds raised will be spent on Canadian-made medical supplies, food and other emergency equipment. This will be filling a function no longer available to Greeks since UNRRA aid was discontinued recently.

All banks and treasury branches in Edmonton and northern Alberta will accept contributions and all money subscribed may be deducted from 1947 earnings when calculating income tax.

Contributions to the campaign Wednesday brought the total to $2,084.50. It was announced by Thomas Dickson, treasurer of the Relief to Greece campaign for northern Alberta. Following is a list of Wednesday's donations:

Previously acknowledged	$2,076.50
Mrs. Helen Cashman, Edmn.	$1.00
Miss C. Guthrie, Edmonton	$5.00
Anonymous donation	$2.00
Total	$2,084.50

The debt at March 31, 1947, was $13,069,281,000.)

In another segment of a return tabled by A. M. Nicholson (CCF—Mackenzie), the government said Canada had expended $3,953,359,482 in wartime gifts, mutual aid and loans to allied countries.

These included:

Gifts: United Kingdom, $1,000,000,000 and Greece $19,382,079, the latter in wheat.

Mutual aid:

Australia, $81,119,000; British West Indies, $3,518,000; China, $25,597,000; France, $23,629,000; Greece, $12,000; India, $18,826,000; New Zealand, $15,278,000; Russia, $159,113,000; United Kingdom, $1,870,978,000.

Loans:

UNITED KINGDOM, $700,000,000 (reduced by $119,822,000); Russia, $10,000,000 (unused—reduced to $2,500,000); Belgium, $501,006; Netherlands, $3,590,717; Russia $8,815,680.

The last three were balances outstanding on temporary advances as of April 30. Post-war loans were not included.

Chief Chefs Asked To Judge Contest

An effort is being made to have the chief chefs of the CNR and CPR act as judges in the $1,000 Alberta recipe contest, Dan E. C. Campbell, director of tourist publicity said Thursday.

Final sorting of the entries have been completed. They are now ready for the judges in sealed packages of 50, which will be opened when judging comences.

Hundreds of entries have been eliminated since the senders were not residents of the province, but there still remains 5,960 recipes from which a selection must be made.

Food Crisis

would be stepped up to 400,000 tons or more a month for May, June and July.

"Such shipments, we believe, should be sufficient to maintain the ration from now on," he said.

PATTERSON IN EFFECT denied charges published in British papers that the U.S. was largely to blame for the present food crisis in Germany. He said imports recommended by Former President Herbert Hoover had been maintained up to May 1 "except for an amount equal to about one week's ration."

At Frankfurt, German officials proposed a temporary slash in the official rations in the British and American zones as food experts of both zones met in emergency session on Western Germany's grave food crisis.

Government sources in London said British troops would seek to crush a large-scale black market, held largely responsible for the situation.

GERMAN OFFICIALS in Stuttgart proposed that official ration in the British and American zones be cut from 1,550 to 1,150 calories daily for each person. If the proposal is approved by both military governments, it would take effect May 25 for a four-week period.

See Ample Wheat To Bridge Gap

By SYDNEY GAMPELL

LONDON, May 15 (Reuters)—There should be no outstanding difficulty in bridging Germany's grain gap until the next harvest in Europe if British and United States taxpayers are still prepared to pay for it.

Each of the three great exporting countries—Canada, the United States and Argentina— seems to have enough grain to fill the entire western European rap until the next European harvests. Collectively their surplus ludicrously dwarfs Germany's deficit.

Germany's immediate troubles may partly be ascribed to imperfect administration but mainly to transport bottlenecks. Reasons for expecting much better things from now on include:

1. The imminent and huge new wheat harvest in the United States.

2. The imminent harvest in Italy and other Southern European countries which have previously commanded for supplies.

3. Reopening last week of Canadian inland water navigation.

4. The possibility of some improvement in the movement from Argentina, and

5. Perhaps above all the present big price inducement to United States farmers to deliver quickly.

The looming problem is not getting the grain or moving it, but paying for it.

The way to get American farmers to deliver wheat now, when it is most wanted, instead of holding it for the late summer when it may be less wanted, is to offer them a higher price now than in the late summer.

This has already been done, spectacularly and effectively. For wheat for delivery this month, Chicago now bids $2.68 a bushel, compared with only $2.25 for July delivery and $2.15 for September.

U.K. May Curtail Canadian Imports

BY CHESTER BLOOM

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, May 15—The frank statement here by Sir Frederick Bain, president of the British Federation of Industries, that Britain may have to curtail her imports from Canada, has cast an atmosphere of deep gloom in government financial circles.

CANADA'S EXPORTS to Britain at present consist largely of farm products, metals and lumber. They are being paid for out of the Canadian loan of a billion and a quarter dollars made a year ago. That loan is already half spent The U.S. loan to Britain of 3½ billion dollars is being depleted at the same rate.

Britain in turn has been giving aid to the war devastated European countries. All reports indicate that Western Europe is in a worse condition this year than last, unable to provide funds for her bare living requirements, far from getting back into production again.

THE NET result is a picture of approaching total economic collapse in Europe year hence unless further steps are taken to help Europe on her feet. Sir Wilfrid Eady, second secretary of the United Kingdom treasury, is believed to have put his situation plainly before the Canadian government on his recent visit here. More aid must be given when the Canadian and U.S. British loans run out in a year's time, or the whole continent faces collapse, due to increasing shortage of U.S. dollars.

The only source of further aid is from the vast gold reserves of the U.S. government which increased $150,000,000 recently in one single week.

single week. That in itself is regarded as an indication of Europe's approaching exhaustion of exchange.

South's "Ogopogo" Is Again Sighted

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., May 15—(BUP)—Southern Alberta's "Ogopogo,"—the Saskatchewan river "monster" — has been sighted again.

Two Medicine Hat businessmen, Bruce Buchanan and Wilfred Dempster report that they have seen the mysterious creature first discovered in the Medicine Hat area two weeks ago.

But now it appears that the "monster" isn't quite as monstrous as first reports indicated.

Dempster and Buchanan say that in their opinion, the animal is a hybrid, probably a cross between a beaver and an otter—large size.

Citizens of Medicine Hat also are advancing the possibility that the "monster" might be a seal which escaped from the Calgary zoo.

Whatever it is, it's making itself at home in medicine Hat. Today, it's busy erecting a dam across the river, between the Canadian Pacific and traffic bridges.

Chemists Discuss Atomic Activities

By JACK GRAY

HAMILTON, May 15.—(CP)—A conference filled with tremendous implications for Canadian chemistry began at McMaster University here today when more than 200 chemists from three countries gathered for the first public disclosures of what is going on in their science at Canada's atomic plant at Chalk River, Ont. Dr. W. B. Lewis, director of the research division at Chalk River, said the Canadian project expected soon to have more extensive facilities for chemical research in energy. Opportunities for such research now were limited because of the heavy shielding required to protect workers against radiations.

Murdered Wife Of Artist Found

ATLANTA, May 15—(AP)—The body of Mrs. Paul R. Refoule, attractive 31-year-old wife of a France artist, was found face - up in Peachtree Creek late last night by police bloodhounds.

The woman, who spent the war years in France while her husband was a German prisoner, apparently had been strangled by a rope, though none was found at the scene, and her shoes had been bound together by her shoe laces, police said.

There were signs of a struggle in the soft sand around the historic creek where the 110-pound victim was found and that her dress had been raised around her shoulders. Her underclothes were missing and her left arm, doubled beneath her body, was blistered.

Everything Done "The Army Way"

Army's Camp Shilo Becoming Fast-Growing Modern Town

SHILO CAMP, Man., May 15.—(CP)— This new, permanent home for Canada's artillery is fast growing into a thriving, modern town like no other in Manitoba, with things done "the army way" from beauty parlors to the little red schoolhouse.

IT'S BECOMING a sort of cooperative enterprise with regimental institutes, employing civilian personnel, operating shops, services and the theatre with all profits going back into community improvements.

It has its own fire department, police department, telephone service, roads and a school. Newly-arrived British brides think the combination grocery, meat and drug store is wonderful and rationing in Canada generous.

Gnr. T. H. Campbell of Petewawa, Ont., finds the life of a bachelman a pleasant change from delivering rations to sergeant cooks. Even the milk ticket system is used.

THE CAMP-TOWN has its own hospital, its own theatre showing four pictures a week, a weekly dance and even a ladies club with Mrs. W. H. Wharton, formerly of Equimalt, B.C., as president. And like other ladies' clubs, this one has formed a committee to provide assistance for the hospital and to check prices of civilian commodities at the camps' self-service store.

Another feature is a photographing hobby shop under Lieut. E. D Greenwood, formerly of Stratford, Ont., and amateur photographers are springing up all over the camp.

The isolated position of Shilo, lying between Brandon and Winnipeg with its 600 square miles described as one of the best artillery ranges in the empire, make it necessary that every feature of a modern town be installed right in the camp for the approximately 500 civilians—wives and children and other dependents of service personell.

UNDER COMMAND of Lt.-Col. D. K. Todd of Vancouver, who took the last medium battery, RCE, to Italy during the war, the camp has successfully coped with an influx of babies and children. Plans call for erection of permanent married quarters. Associated with Col. Todd as Lt.-Col. R. H. Webb, officer commanding the 71st Regiment, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

On a recent visit Defence Minister Brooke Claxton and Miss E. Rae (Nursing Sister) E. Ruth Truman of Winnipeg, who conducts a prenatal clinic for service medical officers, that 11 babies are expected in June.

This caused an old gunner NCO to remark:

"Never thought I'd see more baby carriages than gun tractors at Shilo."

Blast Railways

manager reported extensive damage to the rail lines.

Underground squads damaged three bridges with mines. Explosives placed at several points on the Haifa-Tel Aviv line were discovered before going off. Rail service to Egypt was disrupted.

A government statement at midnight said a concerted attack on rail lines had failed at three places. Further attacks were made after midnight.

The engine of the troop train was badly damaged in the smashup at Bat Balim, a suburb of Haifa. The mine blew up a long section of track.

TWO JEWS CARRYING pistols, shotguns, mine and grenades were captured by British soldiers during a clash with one underground raiding party.

Arabs were reported to have stoned a bus loaded with Jewish passengers, injuring several of them. In Haifa Arab laborers met to protest their "insecurity." The Haifa Arab Labor Union threatened a strike unless the government gave acceptable guarantees of protection.

Two British soldiers were wounded seriously last night when Jewish underground men hurled a bomb into the open air movie theatre of the Sarafand military base.

IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, militant Jewish underground orgznization, published a 4,000-word memorandum it had sent to all United Nations delegates "except Britain and her satellites." This claimed both Palestine and Trans-Jordan as "the national terriory of our people."

Claim Japs Plan Return To Canada

VANCOUVER, May 15 —(CP)— The Vancouver Sun in a special dispatch from Ottawa yesterday said that British Columbia—especially Vancouver—is threatened with a new invasion of Japanese.

The report said that many Canadian-born Japanese, who returned to their ancentral home after "signing up" while Japan was still at war with Canada, don't find conditions favorable in the overpopulated cities of old Japan, it added:

"So they wish ot come back to Canada. The external affairs department is understood to be wrestling with problems relating to what may become another mass movement. Of the several thousand who elected to return to Japan toward the close of hostilities, approximately 2,500, were Canadian-born.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 15.—(AP)— Dr. Albert B. Corey, New York state historian, last night was awarded a fellowship in the academic council of the Rochester museum for "his work as originator and organizer of the biennial conferences on Canadian-American affairs under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for international peace."

Packers State Wage Demands

TORONTO, May 15 (CP)—The United Packinghouse Workers of America (CIO) today announced its wages and hours demands which will be presented to the "big three" packers—Canada Packers, Burns and Company and Swift Canadian Company—during negotiations in June and July.

After the international convention of the UPWA in Cleveland last week, the union's Canadian conference approved these demands in addition to amendments to individual contracts:

1. A general wage increase of 15 cents per hour.

2. Elimination of geographical differentials by bringing all wage rates up to the Toronto level.

3. Establishment of an official 40-hour week.

4. A union shop.

General de Gaulle Calls For Support

BORDEAUX, France, May 15 (AP)—Gen. de Gaulle today asked Frenchmen to join his rally of the French people to save the empire and "make France "great" and "free." France's long projected union of the territories, he said, cannot be realized without a strong government at home with a powerful executive at its head.

Good Response To Conservation Car

The Canadian Forestry Association's educational tours which opened in Alberta some weeks ago, are meeting with good public response, officials said Thursday.

The Association's tree planting car, under the direction of Murray Pratt, has returned to the city after completing a trip along Canadian Pacific Railway line to the Saskatchewan border. It leaves the city over the Canadian National Railways to continue its work in Alberta.

One tour, with George DuPre in charge, is now working in the forested areas north and west of Edmonton, stressing the prevention of forest fires. The tour works in close association with the Alberta Forest Service, and will operate in Alberta during the next three months.

Alberta itinerary for the tree planting car is: Friday, May 16, Fort Saskatchewan; May 17, Brudereim; May 19, Lamont; May 20, Chipman; May 21, Hilliard; May 22, Mundare; May 23, Vegreville; May 24, Lavoy, May 26, Ranfurly; May 27, Innisfree; May 28, Minburn; May 29, Mannville; May 30, Vermilion; May 31, Borradaile; June 2, Islay; June 3, Kitscoty; June 4, Blackfoot; and June 5, Lloydminster.

Withhold Lumber For Priority Use

VANCOUVER, May 15.—(CP)— A new order that 15 per cent of the total lumber cut in any one month in British Columbia is to be held in priority reserve for disposal by the federal timber controller's office, was announced here yesterday. The order divided the 40 per cent domestic lumber quota into two sections. Twenty-five per cent of the quota was for free distribution in Canada and the remaining 15 per cent—about 300,000,000 board feet per annum—to be used at the direction of the timber controller. The reserve would be directed into priority housing, government projects, railways, mines, power projects, shipyards and lumber mill maintenance.

NORTHERN ALBERTA COMMITTEE:

MAYOR HARRY D. AINLAY, Chairman — THOMAS DICKSON, Treasurer — W. A. MacDONALD, Vice-Chairman

"Foul, Vile" Article

Minister to Subpoena Toronto Publisher

OTTAWA, May 15 —(CP)— Veterans Minister Mackenzie told parliament yesterday he plans to subpoena George McCullagh, publisher of the Toronto Globe and Mail, to appear before the public accounts committee to substantiate charges contained in an editorial in Wednesday's Globe.

THE EDITORIAL concerned sale of land formerly held by Japanese and sold to veterans of the Second World War.

Denial was made by Walter Tucker (L.—Rosthern) parliamentary assistant to Mr. Mackenzie, that the lands had been sold to veterans at exorbitant prices.

Mr Mackenzie said that as he was attacked personally in the editorial he planned to have Mr. McCullagh subpoenaed "to substantiate if he can—and he cannot—the vile, foul and malicious statements" made in the editorial.

Later Arthur Smith (PC—Calgary West), a member of the public accounts committee, said he thought the committee was able to conduct its business "without direction from the minister or his loquacious assistant."

MR. MACKENZIE retorted that the House rules gave any member the right to appear before any committee since a committee was the "creature" of Parliament.

Initiating the incident, Mr. Tucker rose on a question of privilege at House opening to "deny unequivocally" the editorial's charges of "dishonesty."

The appraisals by Veterans Land Act officials had been made in 1942 when "the war was at its blackest for the Allies . . . no one knew at that time how long the war would last but the fact that those lands have any value for the re-establishment of Canadian veterans is because Canada and the Allies won the war, a fact which the Globe and Mail seems to ignore so far as Japanese are concerned."

HECKLED BY opposition members, he continued "All former Japanese lands acquired by the VLA and sold to veterans have been sold at sufficient price only to cover their actual cost to the VLA. No profit whatsoever has been made by the VLA administration. There are no grounds for the suggestion in the editorial that the lands were resold to the veterans at vastly increased amounts . . . The facts . . . are readily available to the public accounts committee."

TORONTO, May 15—(CP)—The Globe and Mail replied editorially today to Veterans Minister Mackenzie's announced plans to summon its publisher, George McCullagh, before the Commons public accounts committee "to substantiate . . . the vile, foul, malicious, meretricious statements" the minister said were contained in a Globe editorial May 14.

ENTITLED "For the Minister, No Regrets," today's editorial explained there had been an error in part of the original article dealing with the sale of Japanese-Canadian property in British Columbia's Fraser Valley: " . . . still more shocked by the vastly increased higher amounts obtained by the custodian of enemy property when he sold parts of the land to private bidders"

Regret was expressed for the error but with this change the paper stood by its original statement and its suggestion that a "Royal Commission sift the whole matter (of property sales) to the bottom."

THE EDITORIAL also disclaimed any personal attack on the minister and said the original article contained nothing to provoke his "intemperate outburst." All the editorial had suggested, the Globe said, was that Mr. Mackenzie be asked to "explain how the order-in-council authorizing the government's dishonest appraisal of the land value got past the cabinet."

Outstrips Police

Giving peaceful Roslyn, L. I., its latest gossip, society divorcee Maud Stevenson, 36, is home again after an escapade which almost landed her in a cell. Scantily clad, she was carried to the police station by Robert H. Ilenjes, 25, her alleged boy friend, who said she was "wrecking" his yacht. Dashing out of the station, Maud led the police a merry chase, losing her bra before capture. She was given a suspended sentence.

Europe Misery "Political Game"

CHICAGO, May 15—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace declared last night that "the administration is playing politics with the misery of Europe" and advocated a $150,000,000,000 program of American exports and investments throughout the world.

The only hope for peace "is a major effort to restore the world economy by the use of American resources," the former vice-president and cabinet minister said in a speech prepared for a meeting sponsored by the Illinois chapter of Progressive Citizens of America.

"The Truman Doctrine may not lead to war, but it will never lead to peace," Wallace declared.

"In all Europe I found only one group—the group of extreme right-wingers led by Winston Churchill, who were ready to defend the Truman Doctrine," Wallace said.

Says U.S. Forced Dollar To Parity

OTTAWA, May 15 — (CP) — Rodney Adamson (PC-York West) said yesterday in the Commons he had been "reliably informed" that the government moved the dollar to parity with the American dollar last July after Washington exerted pressure to have such action taken.

His informant had told him that Washington authorities assured passage of the $2,750,000,000 loan to the United Kingdom, then before Congress, if the Canadian government would eliminate the 10 per cent discount on the Canadian dollar.

Speaking during continued debate on the budget, Mr. Adamson said that because of the discount on the dollar Canada was making great inroads on the South American markets and was becoming the greatest competitor of the United States. This situation was not appreciated by some Americans and was said to be one of the reasons why the United States wanted the Canadian dollar revalued.

Preferred Drowning To Paying Rescuers

Halifax Political Pot Starts Boil

HALIFAX, May 15 (CP)—Two months from Wednesday the Halifax constituency will return a new federal member, and already the political pot is boiling with most of the interest centred on the race for the Liberal party nomination.

Four men, including Mayor J. E. (Gee) Ahern, have announced their intention of seeking the nomination at a Liberal convention Friday night. Several others are mentioned as possible prospects.

There are no straws in the wind as to which party will sweep the seat, held by Liberals since 1935, but a close race may be indicated in optimism expressed in three political camps known to be planning to contest the seat.

The progress and outcome of the by-election will be closely watched in Ottawa where the over-all Liberal majority in the 245-seat house is a precarious eight seats. With the Halifax seat vacant, the Liberal party is represented by 126 members.

The Halifax vacancy was caused by the death last November of W. C. Macdonald.

Importance of the riding has been indicated in announcement that National Progressive-Conservative leader, John Bracken will participate in the campaign. There has been no indication whether Ottawa political figures will take part.

More Traffic Control

Automotive traffic is getting seriously out of control in Edmonton, with the result that street accidents have attained a frequency out of proportion to the size of this city's population.

Almost every week-end shows a toll of five or six persons injured in traffic mishaps. Recently a car ran up on a sidewalk and knocked down an aged man. A few days ago a car crashed over the curb and pushed a storefront off its foundation, breaking all the windows.

There is too much traffic carelessness, and efforts to cope with this need to be energized.

It would, of course, require an army of police officers continuously to watch every intersection for infractions of the bylaws. But some of the constables now engaged, somewhat fruitlessly, in checking parked cars could probably be assigned more profitably to this duty.

Moreover private citizens—whose safety is at stake—should be encouraged to report to the police all instances of dangerous or careless driving, and with such complaints supply to the police the license numbers of the offenders.

There are many more points in the city, too, where vehicular traffic should be required to come to a full stop before crossing an intersection. Full stops are already obligatory when entering Jasper and some other arterial highways. But not all motorists obey the rule. The full stop obligation should be rigidly enforced where signs already exist, and extended to apply to many other danger points.

The entire traffic situation in Edmonton is tending to get out of hand. It is time to tighten up on the enforcement of traffic regulations, and to study the regulations to see where they need revision.

Seeding Time

Seeding is late in Alberta this year, about two weeks late according to the official time-keepers. But the Alberta farmer has plenty of company in his enforced delay. His contemporaries in seven other provinces are also away behind schedule. British Columbia is the exception to the rule. There spring came about the usual time and the weather generally has been favorable for putting in the crops.

Delayed seeding is not the serious matter, in the prairie provinces at any rate, that it was when the horse did the pulling of plows and seeders. A man with a tractor can seed as much land in a day as a man with a team used to seed in a week, and the tractor is now the standard prime-mover on all but the smaller farms. The prairie farmer can lose two weeks through backward weather and still finish seeding as early as he did before farm-mechanization became general.

With few exceptions, the moisture supply is reported excellent throughout the west, the slow get-away being almost entirely due to wet soil. Sowing is therefore being done under conditions which promise quick germination and rapid growth.

Seeding is now done so much faster than formerly that it is less important if time is lost getting started. An early spring is no longer an advantage if the soil dries out too much.

War Debts

"Sources close to the Brazilian foreign ministry" say that country will not cut down the $260,000,000 debt it has chalked up against Britain for supplies and materials bought there in wartime.

When Chancellor Dalton stated that Britain will not pay some of its war debts in full, he was careful to explain that the United States and Canada were not involved in the negotiations for a scaling down of claims. Under their lease-lend and pooling agreements these countries made bargains which have no part in creating the financial difficulties with which the old lands are now faced. These are also the countries which supplied Britain with more munitions and other wartime needs than any other.

It is from countries which did less to bolster British resistance to Nazism that the demands are coming for payment in full. These claimants place a lower estimate on the debt they owe to Britain for holding the line when their liberties were at stake. But most if not all of them finally joined the Allies, thereby identifying themselves with the anti-Hitler cause.

If so minded, Mr. Dalton could compile some interesting counter-claims against these states, based on the cost of defending them during the years they stood idle while others fought.

The Irony of it All

There is much that is encouraging to be found in General McNaughton's announcement to the Engineering Institute of Canada that $150,000 will be granted to three universities for atomic research studies in the fields of medicine, chemistry and other peacetime uses. But there is a sour note too when it is recalled that generations of scientists labored in vain to develop atomic energy with no purpose other than these in mind. It remained for fiendish ingenuity to devise for war purposes what it had failed to achieve for the benefit of mankind.

Even now it is possible to comment on the niggardly sum proposed for peacetime research, as compared with the millions freely bestowed on research when the purpose was war.

There was some precedent when the infant science of aviation was put to the uses of war, though even then it was originally used only for the observation and correction of artillery fire. It is not sure that the good friar, Roger Bacon, dreamed that his discovery, gunpowder, would ever be put to any but beneficent uses.

But how slow the development of aviation, of blood transfusion, of plastic surgery, finally of nuclear physics, until war forced the pace.

The Children's Crusade

Judging by news items which emerge almost every day there is a grain of truth in the belief that "the kids are running the country." It only began to be noticeable when it reached the nation-wide proportions of the chocolate bar strike, but before that and since, 'teen agers had been seen to strike because a teacher was dismissed, because a principal, no doubt with good reason, vetoed some school function, because daylight saving was inconvenient.

One may smile at the exuberance of these 'teen age spirits, but what is it leading to? What manner of men and women are forming in the ranks of school pupils who think to have their own way by coercing their teachers, their parents, local government? From intimidating the corner grocer at 15 to threatening to overthrow constituted authority at 30 is not a long step.

Our friends who talk so about British "Imperialism" in the Orient will be interested in the news that a Burmese mission is visiting Australia to study the working of Dominion status at first hand.

Looking Backward

From The Bulletin Files

1887: 60 Years Ago

The Globe does not always talk sense but it hits the nail on the head in the following remark on the fisheries question: "It would be far better and wiser for Canadians to lose all that they could by non-intercourse and to take a walloping into the bargain than to crawl down on their marrowbones and tell their neighbors to name what they want and take it. We have the most earnest desire for the maintenance of the most friendly terms with the United States, but none whatever for the establishment of slavish relations."

The Winnipeg Call reports that Mr. Davis presented a petition from the Edmonton and Saskatchewan Land Company asking that they be empowered to accept their own stock in payments for their bonds.

HOW TO TORTURE YOUR WIFE

by Webster

John Bull's Hot Spot

BY ELMORE PHILPOTT

I have taken my share of cracks at the late British Prime Minister, Neville Chamberlain. But writers further removed from the heat of this day probably will soften criticism of Chamberlain for two reasons:

He was little more responsible for the tough spot in which British found herself, standing alone in Europe, than were his predecessors in office, Baldwin and Ramsay MacDonald.

PHILPOTT

Also, his shrewd business sense told him that if World War II came, it would end by almost mortal injury to "winners" as well as to losers.

THE BEST BRIEF description of what is going on in British today is a little dime booklet, in the series published by the Canadian Association for Adult Education. It is called "Revolution: British Style," and is by R. T. McKenzie, formerly of the University of British Columbia.

McKenzie's assignment, as a member of the educational program in the Canadian Army in Britain, gave him time and opportunity to watch Britain working out her new problems.

The Canadian professor concludes that John Bull will come through. He writes:

"Today the United Kingdom faces the gravest crisis in peacetime history. But for one who has lived in war-time Britain, it is impossible to lose confidence in the British people. They are among the wonders of the contemporary world. Tired and battered, they must now fight again for their survival . . . The nation may again save itself by its exertions and the world by its example."

BEFORE HITLER'S war, Britain was the greatest trading nation among the big powers. She bought goods from all corners of the earth. She manufactured raw materials and re-sold them.

But Britain never did make ends meet by current trade alone. She paid for a big slice of what her people bought by profits on her overseas properties. She had to sell these properties to finance the war. Hence it is a big job to balance her national budget—that is, to get enough goods or materials and so on, to enable her people to live.

HERE IS HOW one member of Parliament summed up Britain's new problems. Before Hitler's war, he said, "All our wheat, all our meat, all our wool, all our cotton, and all our tobacco came into this country for nothing. In other words, the total interest on our overseas assets was sufficient to pay the whole of our imports from abroad."

The latest figures for Britain's trade with the United States show what a hot spot John Bull is in. It's literally a smoking question.

British Purchases from U.S.
June—December 1946

	$ millions	Percent
Foods	118.8	24
Raw Materials	56	11
Oil	61.6	12
Tobacco	156.8	32
Machinery	22	5
Other mfrs.	31.6	6
Ships	14	3
Films	35.2	7

BRITAIN IS importing goods from United States at rate of $900 millions per year. She is selling United States goods worth $146 millions per year.

The United States loan won't last long at that rate.

The above figures show that tobacco and movie films are chief items of what some would call "luxury" imports. Here is one of the darkest spots in the British economic picture. Tobacco and movie imports from United States rose from about 570 millions in 1939 to about $200 millions in 1946.

Meanwhile, the chief British export to United States — Scotch whisky and other alcholic spirits—remained stationary, around $22 millions per year.

A Stranger feature about the whole business is that British smokers are educated to smoke North American tobacco, the Americans themselves are more international in taste.

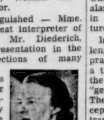
The Artist's Responsibility

BY DOROTHY THOMPSON

Two recent incidents are interesting in relation to each other. Both concern artists: Mme. Kirsten Flagstad, singer; William Hunt Diederich, sculptor.

Each is distinguished — Mme. Flagstad as a great interpreter of operatic works; Mr. Diederich, honored by representation in the permanent collections of many museums of art.



THOMPSON

Mme. Flagstad's behavior under the Nazi occupation of Norway was dubious. She returned to her country under its conquerors. Her husband was later imprisoned as a collaborator by the liberated Norwegians. He died. She returned here, and in Boston her reappearance led to audience demonstrations suspiciously more political than artistic.

Some artists, headed by Walter Damrosch, whose anti-Nazism is not impugned, defended her on the basis of her greatness as an artist.

LATELY, ALSO, the National Institute of Arts and Letters discovered that its member, William Hunt Diederich, had been anonymously sending out anti-Semitic propaganda in the name of the Institute. The National Institute determined to expel him, despite his eminence.

Which of the two attitudes is right?

There may have been mitigating personal circumstances in Mme. Flagstad's case, but there are also good reasons why a musical artist should be especially hostile to Nazism, in the interpretative field of music, the Jewish people are notable pre-eminent. Nazism drove from the concert halls, operatic stages and orchestral pits of Germany every artist of note than Mme. Flagstad. Mme. Flagstad did not protest. She was no Toscanini, who severed his connection with German world the moment the persecution of fellow artists began, stating himself "wounded in my feelings as an artist and a man." But she does protect her own right as an artist.

I shall mind not hearing Mme. Flagstad. But I shall not hear her, for I believe that in this attitude toward "genius" lies one of the ideas that most corrupted Germany. It is the concept that "genius makes its own laws."

AS I RECENTLY tried to demonstrate in "The Commonweal," genius more frequently explains the blind adoration accorded the fuehrer than this concept of "genius" and its "right" to transcend the morality of ordinary men. One finds the concept in Nietzsche; alas, even in Goethe; also, indeed, in much English language literature of the last century.

In Germany it reached such lengths—before Hitler—that it was practically impossible to sentence a talented artist for any crime of the legal code. Even satanic "genius" aroused awe or fascination. The German people had but to accept Hitler as a "genius" and, by transference, think of themselves as a "genius-nation" in order to be liberated from all codes.

The concept is an utter perversion of the Christian concept. Genius, like noblesse, "obliges." Mme. Flagstad is not to be exempted from responsibility for the use of her talent. If as her talent—and what is derived from it—that makes her the more responsible. It gave her international fame, economic security, freedom, and authority in her world.

IS SHE TO BE judged as "above" the petty clerk who joined the party to secure two or three hundred marks a month: or the youth, drawn into the SS by splendorous uniforms, and the perversion of his turbulent adolescent instincts? Is it not the uncommon person from whom most would be expected in support of humanity's codes?

Mme. Flagstad and Mr. Diederich may have little political sense or interest, but it is incumbent on both to support the universality of art and its freedom from extraneous racial or national prejudice. To have done so would not have diminished their stature as artists or persons. To have failed diminishes their stature as both.

The National Academy, not Mr. Damrosch's committee, is right.

Smiles

A muscular woman was giving evidence against the burglar whom she had tackled and secured until the arrival of the police.

Turning to her, the Judge said: "I must commend you for your great bravery but was it really necessary to blacken both of his eyes and tear a piece out of his ear?"

"Well, your worship, I thought it was my husband."

First Woman: "What a striking new hat you've got!"

Second Woman: "Yes, it cost $45, including Entertainment Tax."

First Woman: "You mean Purchase Tax."

Second Woman: "No You've no idea of the entertainment the neighbors get passing ludicrous remarks about it."

"Of course," said Briggs, as he commenced to tackle the portion of chicken with the knife and fork "I may be wrong, but it strikes me that this chicken—"

"Well," snapped the landlady tersely, "and what's the matter with the chicken, pray?"

Briggs shrugged his shoulders. "Oh, nothing—nothing," he said self-handedly. "I was going to say that it is quite evident that the bird was an off-spring of a hard-boiled egg."

A tramp paused outside a large house As he did so, another of his kind came shuffling out of the gate.

"Any luck, mate?" asked the first tramp.

"It ain't no use trying there," was the reply. "It's a poverty-stricken ole. There was a couple of women tryin' to play on one blinkin' piannor."

An astronomer says that other planets, outside this galaxy, are speeding away from the earth at the rate of several thousand miles a minute. Who blames them?

Diner: "Waiter, what sort of bird is this?"

Waiter: "It's a wood pigeon, sir."

Diner: "I thought so. Get me a saw."

"Now, Mary," said the mistress to the maid fresh from the country, "you must remember to say 'Mum' when you speak to me."

"Oh, I couldn't call you that — but I'll call you Auntie if you like."

"The Forty Thieves" was being played at a small theatre. The company numbered only eight, so the robbers passed out at the back of the stage and entered again at the front.

Unfortunately one of the robbers walked with a limp, and when he entered first time a voice from the gallery cried: "Stick it, Hoppy; last lap!"

A jury was being empanelled.

"You are a property holder?" the clerk asked a meek little man.

"Yes, your honor," the man replied.

"Married or single?"

"I have been married six years, your honor."

"Have you formed or expressed an opinion?"

"Not in six years, your honor."

Hotel Guest: "Please send up a full-length mirror."

Clerk: "But there's a half-length mirror in your room already."

Hotel Guest: "Yes, and twice I've gone out without my trousers."

Humanity Takes Root

BY HARPER PROWSE, MLA

One of the most serious problems we are going to have to face and overcome before we can reach the ers of full production, employment and prosperity of which everyone dreams arises out of the fact that labor, both individually and collectively, is relatively immobile. Wealth or capital can easily be transported from one part of the country to another in a very short space of time at relatively little expense and with very little difficulty. Machine tools and even factories can be dismantled and moved from one point to another. But labor in some ways is almost as immobile as in fixed.

The immobility of labor shows itself in various forms and arises from various causes. In the first place, once an individual gets down to roots it is hard for him to tear himself loose. A man who has his friends and his relatives in one district is most loath to leave. This becomes especially true if he owns property, no matter how little. This is shown only too clearly today when we see men for whom there is no hope of employment staying in Cape Breton Island or overcrowded industrial centres like Windsor while there are jobs they are capable of performing going begging in other parts of the country

OF COURSE the high cost of transportation, the lack of housing everywhere, are contributing factors to this. It is possible that some provision for offering transportation to these people with guarantees of homes at points of destination may present a solution to this part of the problem

But even more important than this reluctance of individuals to leave one locality to go to another are two other facts. The first of these is that the labor supply tends to remain relatively constant regardless of demand, and the second is the fact that it is hard for a man who possesses some particular skill to seek employment in another field

The supply of labor can be effected by three things, the birth rate, the death rate and immigration. Birth and death rates tend to remain relatively constant so that changes in the supply of labor through these are very slow. Only through immigration is it possible quickly to increase the supply of labor and only through emigration is it possible to diminish it quickly.

The reluctance of a man who has acquired some special skill to accept employment in a field within that skill is not required is easy to understand. Because in doing so, he usually finds that the employment offered in a field in which he does not possess any particular skill is usually much lower paid than the job he considers his own. Men who have worked in factories and enjoyed city life and industrial pay are naturally reluctant to take jobs in the bush or on farms.

THE FACT that due to old- fashioned training methods and traditions such as the apprenticeship system it usually takes years for a man to reach a point where his skill is accepted as worthwhile discourages a man from trying to change his trade at almost all stages of his life.

And yet it is obvious if we are to progress that new methods of production will render some skills obsolete and creat a demand for new skills. Under these circumstances it seems it is high time that provision was made for the overhauling of all our training systems to permit the rapid retraining of men whose skills are no longer in demand. There is provision for this under the Unemployment Insurance Regulations, and the vocational training schools set up to prepare our veterans for return to civil life have given us valuable experience in, and have provided the machinery for, the rapid retraining of men to prepare them to meet the changing needs of industry and our economy.

IT IS PERHAPS a sad thing that individuals are so reluctant to change. It seems to be a characteristic of our established habits or customs. Yet the capitalist economy is an ever-changing one. And if we would have the new future of our dreams become reality we must be prepared to take the risks necessary to make those dreams come true.

ENEMIES IN SPACE?

Editor, Bulletin—The ending of the second of two deplorable wars, in the lifetime of many of us now living, did not halt, suspend or terminate too many tragic and regretable air, earth and sea accidents; every day has its toll. Truly a ghastly state of affairs!

Can the conjecture be altogether ruled out or "pooh-poohed," that atomic energy, launched from remote space is not playing a part in these deplorable mishaps?

OPPORTUNITY

Editor, Bulletin—We are told by those both responsible and well informed, war is indivisible; also peace is indivisible. Conceptration by responsible for the former excludes the latter.

History records the Creator's message "Peace on earth to men of good-will." The resources of the universe are becoming available to the peoples of the world, for use if there is sufficient good-will; for misuse by those divided against each other. The national unit is not big enough for partnership with the Creator. Radio and conquest of the air have made possible new opportunities for establishing peace, or waging war.

Man's peaceful advance must be as a co-operative family of peoples producing for human need.

A rrn.e of national sovereignties prepare for all the fate .of the house divided against itself.

BARBARA'S CAR

Editor, Bulletin—There seems to be some doubt as to whether it was in keeping with the rules of the Canadian Olympic games committee for Barbara Ann Scott to accept the car presented to her by the Ottawa city council. Be that as it may, it would seem to most persons that it was highly improper for the Ottawa city council to present it to her in the first place.

Participation in sports should be encouraged and Barbara Ann seems to be a fine wholesome type of young Canadian. It is quite fitting for her home city to honor her but the price of the gift should not be exceeded say, ten dollars unless it was raised by voluntary subscriptions.

OLDER WOMEN

Editor, Bulletin—Referring to the shortage of office help, especially stenographers, I think one reason is that employers always advertise for those in the 'teens and twenties. They want reliable help but won't employ older women. There are many single women in the forties and fifties who need work and would accept a reasonable salary. They are steady and efficient but hesitate to apply for positions where the twenties are the age limit. I have no grudge against the younger generation, they will have their chance, but why limit employment only to these? What are the older women to do when they need employment if no one will employ them in spite of their qualifications?

Employers don't remain in the 'teens and twenties, so why expect employees to do so—or be unemployed?

As far as the insurance rates being higher on older employes, many of us don't want the insurance anyway. We have our own insurance and I am convinced any employer would pay is of no use to an employe if they leave the firm. Just give us employment and we don't want anything else.

It's time Canadian employers woke up to the fact that older women can be made a firm and not liabilities. Give the older, single women a chance. They are not looking for inflated salaries, but a chance to earn an honest living for which they will give good service.

NEED OF HOMES

Editor, Bulletin—Apart from an avalanche of lip service, nothing is being done to remedy Canada's great basic evil, namely, housing. Unless the latter is settled we will be homeless in a few weeks but, thank God, I have no children and would not have any while in this country.

On home hunting forays, in this city, I have witnessed conditions that are appalling. In fact, it must be difficult for adults to keep their social balance under such conditions, let alone trying to bring up children. I am greatly surprised at our returned veterans, and their organizations taking the situation so meekly. I am equally surprised at how columns in our daily press can be devoted to an eight-cent candy bar, the latest murder case, this incubator of misery, and communism, remains almost unmentioned.

Instead of our Liberal and Conservative governments which are just two ends of the same rope—trying to pack the country with Europeans, some chance should be given first to our young people and our veterans in their struggle to establish a home here.

GARBAGE TRUCKS

Editor, Bulletin—Don't you think it about time our beautiful city was a little more modern, as regards garbage? The garbage wagon is exposed to all the elements of the weather as it goes up and down our streets. On a windy day the garbage is blown out of the wagon and littered about our roads, thus exposing the public to all kinds of unsightliness. Also nothing of the poor garbage men who so faithfully serve us each week.

I have seen in some cities a roller cover which can be slid up and down easily as the refuse is collected thus saving the public from the danger of infection (especially on hot days).

PREDICTED SUN SPOTS

Editor, Bulletin — The official astronomers completely failed to understand the cause of sunspots. I have solved that problem and my latest chart for predicting the sun spots for information indicated that one of considerable size would form on the face of the sun on June 24th, and two more on April 25th. They all came within twelve hours of the times estimated, and we did all the big spots seen this year.

The Northern Alberta cancer drive was bound to reach its $35,000 objective if the unremitting efforts of six little girls could get it there. The little girls conceived the idea of putting on a show of singing, dancing, physical culture and other attractions. Admission was one cent per person and refreshments were served at the home of two sisters taking part, at five cents per plate. Known as the Cocks' Little Theatre—after the two sisters—the show raised a grand total of $3.45, which was presented with pride, and received with thanks by the cancer committee. It was the spirit rather than the amount involved that brought praise to the girls. Above are those who staged the show.

Say Britain Bans Refugee Group

NEW YORK, May 13 —(CP)— The New York Times in a dispatch from Lausanne, Switzerland, today said that the British government has refused to let the International Refugee Organization operate in the British zone of Germany to care for displaced persons who will ultimately fall within the scope of IRO operations.

The newspaper listed the number of persons involved at about 245,000, the British position which the Times said is not yet in the open, is regarded as an extremely serious threat to a successful handling of the vast refugee problem.

While Britain has backed the preparatory commission of the IRO in converting itself into an executive body ready to take over the job being dropped by UNRRA June 30, she does not want the IRO to send its own personnel into the British zone of Germany, the paper declared.

Now, better cakes and pastry than were ever possible with all-purpose flour

Hard-wheat flour makes wonderful bread. But a new flour has come to the West which is vastly superior to hard-wheat flour for making cakes and pastry.

Monarch Flour was developed specially for making cakes and pastry, and when you make your first Monarch Flour cake you'll be simply delighted with its light, moist, feathery texture.

This flour is the result of long and careful research with all types of flour and a careful study of every detail of milling. Our dietitians have baked thousands of cakes and pies, and kept accurate records.

You'll be simply amazed what light, fluffy biscuits, what feather-light cakes and what tender, melting pie-crust you'll make with Monarch Flour.

Monarch needs only one chance to prove to you that it is the best flour you've ever used for cakes and pastry. So get a bag today, and . . . happy "bakeday" to you!

LAYER CAKE
Yield—two 9-inch layers

Oven temperature—moderately hot, 375°. Butter two 9-inch round layer cake pans. Sift, then measure 2 cups Monarch Pastry Flour; add 2½ teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt. Sift together once; return to sifter. Cream until soft 8 tablespoons shortening (or a mixture of butter and shortening); gradually blend in 1 cup fine granulated sugar, and cream thoroughly.

Beat 3 eggs until thick, and add to creamed mixture, a little at a time, beating well after each addition. Measure ½ cup milk; add 1 teaspoon vanilla. Sift dry ingredients into creamed mixture, alternating with additions of flavored milk—make 3 dry and 2 liquid additions and combine lightly after each.

Turn batter into prepared cake pans and spread evenly; drop pans on table 2 or 3 times to expel large air bubbles. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375°, about 30 minutes. Let stand on wire cake rack for 10 minutes, then remove from pans to cake rack. Cool. Put the layers together with stewed date filling or with raspberry jam and ice the top and sides of cake with the following Mocha Icing; decorate with walnut halves.

MOCHA ICING
Measure into a heatproof bowl 3 tablespoons strong coffee infusion; cut up and add 1½ ounces unsweetened chocolate, and place over hot water until the chocolate is melted.

Remove from heat and stir in 2½ tablespoons butter and ¼ teaspoon vanilla. Gradually beat in 2 cups sifted icing sugar (about). Beat until smooth.

So easy to adjust your favorite recipes to MONARCH Cake and Pastry Flour

For each cupful of hard-wheat flour required in your old recipe, simply add 2½ tablespoonfuls when you use Monarch Flour. This addition is required because, by actual weight, Monarch Flour is lighter. In every 7-pound bag of Monarch Flour, there are seven cups more flour than in the same weight of hard-wheat flour.

Famed Polish Artist

50-Year-Old Refugee Makes Good at UBC

VANCOUVER, May 15 —(CP)— George Bulhak, 50-year-old Polish refugee, was the oldest student ever to graduate from the University of British Columbia when he received his bachelor of science in agriculture here yesterday.

BULHAK, a distinguished Polish artist, is the son of the famous patriot, Thomas Bulhak, who led two revolts against the Russians in the 19th century and spent 25 years in the salt mines of Siberia.

Before the war, he was head of the Polish Board of Trade, and fled Poland to Lithuania before the German invasion in 1939. There he pawned his only possessions, an heirloom gold watch, silver and gold lockets and a Swiss watch, to buy fare for himself and his wife to Canada.

Bulhak landed in Vancouver on Christmas Eve, 1940, with $25 in his possession and unable to speak a word of English. He immediately enrolled as a student of English at U.B.C. and plunged into agronomy research, working in his off-hours in a war plant.

A SUBJECT he had studied at Vilno University in 1927, art photography, stood him in good stead and he published a book of campus photographic studies, later becoming an instructor in art photography for the department of university extension.

He then enrolled in one of the toughest courses at U.B.C.—agriculture with a major in economics.

BISCUITS FOR DINNER!

Ever noticed how your meals become festive and exciting when you serve golden, flaky biscuits with the main course? Your family will think you're pretty "special" when you can stir up a delicious batch of biscuits any time they want them. So try this biscuit recipe tomorrow—using BENSON'S CORN STARCH to make sure the biscuits are just right! . . .

Time—12-15 Min. Oven—450°F. Yield—12 to 13 2" biscuits. Sift and measure 1¾ cups flour. Then sift together with it 1 cup Benson's Corn Starch, 4½ teasps. baking powder and 1 teasp. salt. Cut in ¼ cup lard or shortening rather coarsely. Make a well in centre of dry mixture and pour in ¾ cup milk all at once. Stir lightly with fork or knife, turn on lightly floured board and knead gently until smooth. Roll ½" thick and cut into desired shapes with lightly floured cutter. Place on lightly greased baking sheet and bake.

You see—it's simple—and with such completely delicious results! Any recipe with BENSON'S CORN STARCH is bound to be a success for it's such a wonderfully fine-textured corn starch—it has been the buyword of, literally, generations of good cooks!

4,000-Volt Line Doesn't Affect Garden Worker

KANSAS CITY, May 15—(AP)—A coil of wire fell beside S. R. Drumm while he was mowing his lawn and wrapped itself twice around his body. Thinking a neighbor was playing a joke, Drumm calmly unwrapped the wire.

Later a power company lineman, repairing a high-tension electric wire blown down by the wind, told Drumm:

"Brother, you just shook hands with 4,000 volts."

Drumm came in contact with only the insulated portion of the wire, the lineman said.

King To Promote Unity Of Empire

BY STUART UNDERHILL

LONDON, May 15 (CP)—The King accepted London's official welcome today from South Africa today by pledging himself to do all he can "by travel and understanding" to promote empire unity.

Speaking at a lord mayor's luncheon in bomb-scarred old Guildhall, the King said his South African tour had emphasized two things to him:

"One is the strength for peace and good will the Commonwealth derives from the wide dispersion of its resources—strength which no political system possesses in equal measure—strength which we must all do our utmost to enlarge by mutual help for the benefit of all.

"The other is the value of moral unity and understanding whereby our widely distributed strength may be as effective in the tasks of peace as in the ordeal of war."

Recent evidence by Canada, Australia and New Zealand of a practical desire to help Britain in her recovery period was further proof of the sense of Commonwealth partnership and "as sovereign of our Commonwealth and Empire I owe equal duty to all its units. I wish to thank them all from the bottom of my heart for the spirit of comradeship which they have once more so practically shown."

LEAN THROUGH THE TORSO, then the full softness of unpressed pleats. It's the new look—done so well in this lobster-tinted dress by Col Chapman of New York. It's a good look, if your figure's slim enough.

● If you want to look your youngest, slimmest and loveliest in the new fashions . . . you must watch your diet. And, in any safe diet to gain and keep a lovely figure, you should eat certain special foods because of their "protective" qualities.

That is why Kellogg's All-Bran is included in the new scientific weight-control menus. All-Bran is made only from the outer layers of the wheat grain. It's one of the most rich in iron and certain other "protective" food elements your body must have if you want to keep your vitality . . . your very joy in life.

You will be glad to know, too; that All-Bran is guaranteed, on a double-your-money-back basis, to keep you regular naturally. Natural regularity is always advisable, diet or no diet. Ask your grocer for a package of Kellogg's All-Bran today.

Senate Committee Told:

Immigrants 'Worth their Salt' Can Run Nickel Into $10,000

BY CHESTER BLOOM

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, May 15—Senator T. A. Crerar, Manitoba and Senator Ralph Horner, Saskatchewan, told the Senate committee on immigration yesterday that chances for a new immigrant to earn wealth in Canada were good as ever.

Both disputed arguments by Percy Bengough, president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, that immigrants should not be admitted until jobs were waiting for them.

IMMIGRANTS WILLING to work did not require the guarantee of a job, said Senator Crerar.

"If an immigrant is worth his salt, he can run a nickle into $10,000 in five years" said Senator Horner, citing his own example.

Senator Horner recalled how in the early days of the west, farm immigrants lived in mud huts with dirt floors. Many of them had subsequently raised families, put their boys through university "and wound up with more than $10,000 in the bank."

Mr. Bengough said one could not expect immigrants to put up with those conditions today.

"WHY NOT?" retorted Senator Crerar. "If they hadn't done so in the early days of the west, the prairies would never have been opened up. These opportunities still exist."

"Opportunity" commented Senator Horner, "is what a man of enterprise makes of it. Pat Burns ran 10 cents into $200,000,000."

Take them in fortified food — the delicious Ovaltine way!

Of course, the whole subject of vitamins is new. We learn more about them every day. And today, millions are learning a new and better way to take their extra vitamins—a more modern, more natural way that can do more good. Discarding earlier methods of taking vitamins alone, they now take them in fortified food!

For latest evidence shows that vitamins do not work alone. They work most effectively in combination with certain other food elements—which are absolutely necessary for best results.

This is the reason so many people are changing to Ovaltine. A specially-fortified supplementary food-drink—it contains—besides vitamins—nearly every precious food element needed for good health. Especially, those elements necessary for vitamin-effectiveness.

For example, Vitamin A and protein are both necessary in cell-building. Vitamin B_1 and energy food act together for sparkling vitality. Vitamin D, Calcium and Phosphorous also need each other. You get them all in a glass of Ovaltine made with milk!

So why not turn to Ovaltine, as many people are doing? If you're eating normal meals, 2 glasses of Ovaltine give you all the extra vitamins and minerals you need for robust health.

Daylight saving time goes into effect in Lacombe at midnight on Saturday. Members of the town council discussed the summer time situation at a special meeting held recently and after a short survey, decided to implement the fast time in Lacombe. During the discussion, councillors pointed out the inconvenience to farmers and business men alike in having some of the centers in the district on daylight saving time, and many of the smaller villages are already on fast time.

Giants Hand Cardinals Fifth Straight Setback

ST. LOUIS, May 15 —(AP)— New York Giants made it five straight over St. Louis Cardinals by winning yesterday's finale of a two-game National League series 6-4.

Larry Jansen, rookie righthander who won 30 games for San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League last year, made his second start for the Giants, and although he needed help from Ken Trinkle in the seventh, was credited with his second victory. Murry Dickson, first of four Card hurlers was the loser, dropping his fifth decision against no triumphs.

THE CARDS drew first blood with a two-run outburst in the first frame, but the Giants came back with a six-run bombardment in the fourth that shelled Dickson from the mound.

Successive triples by Willard Marshall and Walker Cooper highlighted the attack which was begun by a walk to Bobby Thomson and a single by Johnny Mize. After the two three-baggers, Ken Burkhart took over but yielded singles to Sid Gordon, Buddy Kerr and Billy Rigney before retiring the side.

The 27-year-old outfielder belted his first major league homer with nobody on base.

Bert Haas, also former Brooklyn property of an earlier vintage, added the second run in the fourth when he opened with a double, moved to third on Ray Lamanno's fly and scored while Eddie Stanky threw out Eddie Miller. The Reds had only four hits but they proved sufficient.

Prominent City Divot Diggers Tune Up Game At Beautiful Mayfair Course

Along the Fairways
with Bert Greer

Many a golf ball has been lost in the rough since Tommy Morrison, congenial manager of the Mayfair Club, left his home in the "Foothills City" and took up permanent residence in Edmonton 22 years ago, but the golfing "giant" of the 20's still has vivid memories of his somewhat unique experiences on the Calgary courses.

Tommy, who was intently watching Leroy "Goldie" Goldsworthy, Ingy Cameron, A. J. "Johnny" Munro and Pete Olynyk perform on the green, was caught in a reminiscent mood yesterday.

The big fellow who could top them 300 yards, let his memory wander back over the years till the First Great War when he played with the top-notchers in England while convalescing after gun-shot wounds.

"The wounds afforded me the opportunity to play in service tournaments, and although I didn't win any of them I enjoyed playing with some of the "big fellows" over there," he said.

Tommy played his best golf in the early 20's' when such link stars as Tommy Gillespie, J. Munro Hunter, Carson MacWilliams, Charlie Hague and the late Herb Black were dominating the fairways.

He was in the Alberta amateur final three years running, losing out to J. Munro Hunter of Edmonton, in 1920, winning from Tommy Gillespie in 1921 and bowing to Charlie Hague after two extra holes in 1923. He also copped the Alberta open in 1926.

In those days Charlie Hague, whose swing was the envy of every ardent golfer, was the cream of the crop in Tommy's opinion, but he thought Joe Pryke, his assistant at the Mayfair nearly a decade ago, was the "loveliest" player he had ever seen.

Tommy's oddest experience was on the 13th hole at the old St. Andrews course in Calgary. He scored a hole-in-one while playing with Tommy Rideout and the following day, after kidding his opponents, Dr. L. A. Maxwell and Herb Gardiner, that the hole was easy for him, canned his tee shot again.

That isn't all. Two nights later while playing with C. O. Smith, then editor of The Calgary Herald, Tommy advised his cross-handed rival to use a more orthodox swing if he ever expected to get any place in the game.

That's right. They were on the 13th tee at the time and Smith scored an "ace".

Herb Black was the best golfer for his size Tommy ever saw. When he and Herb, who were great pals, travelled together to a tournament Tommy would invariably find Herb's golf shoes inside his.

"Herb had a great sense of humor," Tommy said with a grin. "He'd slip his shoes inside mine before we left and I wouldn't know they were there till I began to dress for the tourney."

Morrison also won the Calgary amateur championship in 1921, defeating Charlie Hague one up in the final.

Leroy Goldsworthy, who will head for the scenic Jasper course this weekend to resume professional duties, has been tuning up his game in recent weeks. It will be his third year as pro at the mountain resort.

"Goldie" is a "natural" athlete. Besides being a top-notch golfer, he has starred at hockey and baseball. He played for every team in the National Hockey League except Toronto and this season answered an S. O. S. call from the Baltimore club to come down and coach the team during the last two months of play.

Goldsworthy is taking advantage of every available moment to get out on the course, for he anticipates another teaching deluge when he arrives in Jasper.

A. J. "Johnny" Munro, who along with his children, Rosemary Reese, Murdo and Lillian, have thrilled ice carnival fans in Edmonton and other centres with their prowess on the blades, firmly believes golf is the top summer sport.

Said Johnny: "I've played soccer, tennis, baseball, and many other sports, but I'm devoting my pleasure time to golf from now on."

Munro was president of the Alberta Golf Association last year and is now an honorary president. He is also Alberta's representative for the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

He said his daughter Lillian was going to the Ice Capades, the biggest ice show on the North American continent.

Pete Olynyk, the Mayfair professional, left the simon-pure ranks in 1943 when he accepted the Highlands Club post. He joined the Mayfair in 1944 and has carved himself quite a record in the past few years.

He was runner-up in the Alberta open in 1946, fourth in 1945 and third in 1943. He has never had a hole-in-one, but can't remember how many times his tee shot has lit in the cup and bounded out. Once he hit the cup and the ball leaped clear off the green into a bunker.

Ingy Cameron, whose putting dexterity gives his opponents the "shivers," has the distinction of giving Stan Leonard one of the toughest battles the Coast ace has ever had.

In 1934 Ingy was two up and three to go against Stan in the B. C. amateur semi-finals and Leonard fired three straight birdies at him to emerge one up.

He also has a hole-in-one to his credit—and it's not just an ordinary one. He scored the first ace ever made on the picturesque 9th hole at Jasper. It is 215 yards long —all down hill.

Southpaw and Second Baseman En Route Here

Two more players are on their way to Edmonton to strengthen this city's representation in the Big Four Intercity Baseball League.

John Bass, a six foot left-hander, started from Portland yesterday afternoon, and Tony Chulla, who plays second base, left Twin Falls, Idaho, for Edmonton Wednesday night.

BASS TRAINED with Victoria this spring prior to going to Portland and should be in good shape, while Twin Falls where Chulla has been playing, is a member of the Pioneer League

An invitation to 25 boys to attend as guests for the entire season, has been extended to Col. Mewburn Hospital through Harold Wright, director of recreational activities

Soccer Workouts

McAuley's Mortons Take Three in Row

Morton's scored four runs in the first inning against Walk-Rites at Kingsway last night to win their third straight game in the Senior Ladies Fastball League by a 4-0 count. Ken McAuley's squad unleashed a four-hit bombardment in the initial stanza, and that uprising, combined with a quartet of Walk-Rite errors, was enough to spell victory.

Third baseman Millie McAuley opened the attack with a driving single past the hot corner. She went to second on a wild peg to first and pulled up at third on Mary Gamble's single through short. Merrie Mercer streaked to

Over 400 Horses on Hand

Well-Filled Races Assured for Calgary

CALGARY, May 15 — Thirteen thoroughbreds from Spokane, including a number which raced at Arizona tracks earlier in the year have arrived at Victoria Park for the opening of the 50-day Western Canada racing season a week from Saturday.

Heading the latest arrivals which swelled the number of horses on hand to more than 400 is the stable of S. T. Knifong, who has campaigned a string on the western circuit for many years.

HIS STAR is Jack Metzger, a distance performer, which won his last two starts at Phoenix in March at 1 1-sixteenth and 1 1-eighth miles. In the latter affair he equalled the track record of 1:53 4-fifths.

Others in the stable are Carbine Man, Galline, Everywhere and Vain Rabbit.

C. ELFRINK brought Valdina Joy, Valdina Della, High Flying and Bonsadra; E. McLain has Dixie H.; W. K. Kivett, has Boat Song and J. J. Hogan Addytie and Daisy Boy.

The latter is an extremely consistent performer which was three times first, three times second and once third in 1946.

Royals Offered Trip To Olympics

MONTREAL, May 15 (CP)—Montreal Royals have been approached unofficially with an offer to represent Canada at the Olympic Games next year and the Canadian senior hockey champions are prepared to accept if their league schedule doesn't conflict with the trip, it was learned Wednesday.

Logical choice for the trip, the Allan Cup winners were approached by Canadian Amateur Hockey Association officials during the final series with Calgary Stampeders, but Norman Dawe, CAHA vice-president, said they gave no answer at that time.

Yesterday Ernie Hamilton, Royals president, said "if it didn't conflict with the Quebec Senior Hockey League schedule we would be willing to go."

CALGARY, May 15 (CP)—A rousing downtown reception will be accorded the Calgary Stampeders, Allan Cup finalists, on their return from Montreal at 10:04 a.m. Friday, Plans for the welcome include a downtown parade led by a band to an official civic banquet.

Mortons Win

first to beat out a bunt and that loaded the bags.

McAULEY SCORED when Lil Brown grounded through Minnie Willson. Willson then threw wide of home plate trying to nab Gamble and Mercer also came home on the play. Bubbles Ferrier rifled a single to right field to score Brown all the way from second with the fourth Morton run.

From there to the wire it was scoreless ball. Walk-Rites missed their best scoring chance in the sixth inning. Thora Stewart beat out a bunt down the third base line, pilfered second and went to third on an infield out. Betty Dunn then whistled a scorching ground-er to Ferrier who fielded it expertly and threw to catcher Betty Arnold who tagged Stewart at the plate.

MERRIE MERCER and Millie McAuley led the Morton drive with two singles each in four times up. Edna Squire went the distance for the Morton crew, yielding five hits and fanning four to earn her third consecutive win of the season. Betty Dunn on the hillock for the Walk-Rite nine struck out four Morton hitters and allowed seven hits.

Inter-City Baseball Returns to Edmonton

Inter-City baseball on a regularly scheduled basis returns to Edmonton and Calgary this season with the opening games of the recently formed Big Four circuit at both Renfrew Park and Buffalo Stadium on Friday of this week.

Tomorrow night at 7 o'clock Frank Wolfe's Chevrolet Cubs with Arnold Martin as manager, will be "at home" to Calgary's Purity 99 club, while Brant Matthews, New Edmonton Hotel Eskimoes handled by "Chuch" Henderson are engaged in their first test with the Buffaloes in the Foothills City.

HENRY J. ROCHE, whose association with Edmonton baseball dates back for many years is the first president of the Big Four Inter-City Baseball League, while Dr. J. H. Birch, who headed the Calgary Bronks in the old Western Canada loop, holds the office of vice-president.

In addition to re-kindling keen rivalry between Edmonton and Calgary, the Big Four is generally looked upon as the forerunner of pro ball, which could return to the west as early as 1948, but which now seems almost a certainty for '49.

BUT THE PROSPECT of inter-city struggles is not the only attractive feature of this year's senior baseball program. For the first time in the history of the game, Western Canadian fans will be able to watch their favorite game under entirely new conditions as both Edmonton and Calgary parks will be electrically floodlighted, thus making later starts, as well as night ball, possible.

Construction work preliminary to the installation of lights already is under way at Renfrew Park and it is anticipated the job will be completed in June. In the meantime, full advantage of daylight saving will be taken in order to have games commence at more convenient times in the evenings.

An electric scoreboard, another innovation, will be in operation this year too. And even a tarpaulin to cover base paths has been obtained as insurance against postponments due to showers.

THIS YEAR'S schedule will consist of 136 games, 68 to be played by each of the four teams. All clubs will be required to make seven road trips, the league winding up on August 17 with Buffaloes playing Eskimoes in Edmonton and Cubs opposing Purity at Calgary.

Five games per week are provided for with Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays league days. All mid-week (Tuesday and Wednesday) fixtures will be between home clubs, while the Friday, Saturday and Sunday dates are all inter-city clashes.

Reds, Fascists Not Wanted Here

OTTAWA, May 15 (CP)—The Canadian government fully realizes the "importance of increasing immigration" but it does not want "either Communists or Fascists" and has no intention of facilitating entry of those who cannot be assimilated into the Canadian way of life, Resources Minister Glen said last night.

In an address over a national network of the CBC on free time provided for political broadcasts, the minister in charge of immigration said it was essential that immigrants to Canada "should be, in general, people of our way of life and thought."

Fast Time

DRUMHELLER, May 15.—(CP)—Watches will be turned ahead an hour Saturday at midnight as the City of Drumheller goes on daylight saving time. This was decided at a special meeting of council Wednesday following a plebiscite Monday when 319 voted for fast time and 119 against.

Spy Probe Result

Canada "In Cellar" Of Soviet Good-Will

(Canadians are not popular as Russian guests, Ross Munro discovered on a month-long visit to Moscow. Here he explains why.—EDITOR.)

By Ross Munro

LONDON, May 15 —(CP)— Canadian-Soviet relations in Moscow hit rock bottom and have remained there as a result of the spy trials in the Dominion.

BEFORE disclosures of Soviet espionage in Canada, the Dominion was held in high esteem in the Russian capital. Eighteen months ago Canadian diplomatic representatives in Moscow frequently received special favors from Soviet governmental officials.

But after the disclosures Canadian stock slumped and we now share the cellar along with Greece and Australia, highly unpopular in Moscow as a result of persistent Australian attacks on Soviet foreign policy.

During my month in Moscow, only a few Russians mentioned the spy trials to me and they seemed a little embarrassed about it, giving the impression they felt Russian officials had been clumsy in handling this particular aspect of international espionage.

MY RUSSIAN visa and exit permit from Moscow were issued without difficulty. My treatment seemed no different from that given any other foreign newspaperman and I made no bones about the fact I was a Canadian.

But there were Russians who backed up discreetly when they found out I was a Canadian, rather than the American they first took me to be, and they became far less communicative.

As far as I could find out, the Russians are not in the least concerned about Canadian military experiments in the Arctic. But they would have understood it far better if the experiments had been done secretly. They seem quite surprised that Ottawa would even think of asking foreign military attaches to see for themselves what was taking place.

Man Is Charged As Wife Killer

See Car Prices Jumping By $200

VANCOUVER, May 15 (CP)—Further increases in the price of imported United States cars, with increases as much as $200 on some models, are expected shortly, it was reported here today. TCA Will Fly Short-Cut Route

By CHESTER BLOOM

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, May 15—By the new short-cut route across the Great Lakes, Trans-Canada Airlines planes will save hundreds of miles between Montreal and Winnipeg and Toronto and Winnipeg, according to details given to the House of Commons railway committee by H. J. Symington, president of TCA. The change will be made about July first.

Toronto planes will fly direct west across Western Ontario to the Soo, then cross Lake Superior to the head of the lakes and thence fly direct west to Winnipeg. This new route will put Sault Ste. Marie, Port Arthur and Fort William on the direct trans-continental route.

To achieve this new direct route, it was necessary to use two United States air fields, one at Houghton and the other at Kinross in Michigan. Lengthy negotiations with Washington had at last been satisfactorily completed for the daily use of these fields, Mr. Symington explained. Likewise, a new emergency field, also had to be constructed at Owen Sound, and is now all but completed, ready for use about July 1.

Approve Relief

WASHINGTON, May 15.—(AP)—The Senate approved yesterday a $350,000,000 relief program for war ravaged countries of Europe and Asia. The vote was 79-4.

Britain Uses Half Of American Loan

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—Britain has cashed a cheque on the United States treasury for another $200,000,000 chunk of the $3,750,000,000 lent her last July, treasury records disclosed yesterday. This brought withdrawals in 10 months to $1,750,000,000—nearly half the total sum originally estimated to last Britain at least three years.

FREAK PLANTS

TOKYO, May 15.—(Reuters)—Radioactivity of the atom bomb dropped on Nagasaki nearly two years ago has brought about double-headed plants, double-bulb onions and deformed pumpkins from more than 20 per cent of seeds planted in the centre of the blasted area, it was announced today.

Our Town

By JACK SCOTT

Doc's Idea

I bumped into the Doc the other afternoon as I was heading homeward. "What do you think about all this war talk, Doc?", I asked.

"I recommend that you read a James Thurber short story called "The Day the Dam Broke," the Doc said.

I remembered having read it. "About somebody running in the main street of the town and then the whole town taking to its heels, thinking the dam had burst?" I began to laugh, thinking of the wonderful tale. "And after the whole town had got into the hills, it turned out the fellow was just running to meet his wife?" ...

"That's it," the Doc said soberly. "Seems to me the whole world is that way right now. Right up on tiptoe waiting for somebody to start running."

"I tell you Junior, I get an awful laugh out of people sometimes," the Doc said. "Was up in the butcher shop yesterday and I listened to the butcher and an old gal. They had it all figured out. Heading for another war. The butcher said it was inevitable. That's the favorite word."

"A lot of people are saying it."

Tribe Of Parrots

"We're a great tribe of parrots," the Doc said. "Sometimes when somebody tells you there's going to be another war, just put a one-word question to him. Just ask him 'Why?' It'll surprise you how many people can't get beyond that word."

"I think you're being a little unfair," I said. "After all, a couple of our own generals have said that we have to expect another war."

"Naturally," the Doc said. "How else can they justify the nonsense of sending a bunch of soldiers on a holiday up the Alaska Highway? Next thing you know, they'll be putting a gun on the top of Mount Robson and pointing it north. Funny thing is the generals never say who they're expecting from that direction.

"You don't suppose we're going to be attacked by Eskimos, do you?" I asked.

Accident Victim Awarded Damages

Damages totalling $4,500 were awarded by a supreme court jury in the action brought by Alexander C. Rose, Mannville implement agent, on behalf of his 17-year-old son Ross G. Rose, for injuries received when struck by an automobile operated by Wesley J. Sargent, district stock buyer.

The jury, returning its verdict, placed 60 per cent of responsibility for the accident on the defendant, and 40 per cent on the infant plaintiff. Consequently only 60 per cent of the jury's award will be paid to the successful litigant.

The accident occurred on Mannville's main street about noon on Sept. 16, 1945. The injured boy was adjusting a trouser clip on his leg when he was struck by the automobile operated by the defendant. The jury held the boy was negligent in not leaving the roadway while making the adjustment.

He suffered injuries which resulted in loss of his upper teeth, and it is claimed he is permanently disfigured.

Mr Justice S. J. Shepherd presided at the trial. Counsel for the plaintiff were Charles H. Grant, KC., and Ronald Maitland, KC., with Sidney Wood, KC., acting for the defendant.

He is a veteran of the First World War, having served four years with the 51st battalion.

City Visitor

Horse Show Gets Away To Good Start

Pair Of Trousers Causes Trouble

A pair of trousers stolen from the Pioneer Manufacturing Company, 10316 107 street, drew a 12-month suspended sentence for 27-year-old Orville W. Blondin, Edmonton, when he appeared before Magistrate A. L. Millar in city police court Thursday morning.

He was charged with retaining possession of stolen property. Detective Stevenson told court that the trousers were taken from the manufacturing company when it was broken into last April. At that time the safe had also been tampered with.

Blondin said he bought the trousers from a man while in a city beer parlor. He paid $4 for them.

Only the recommendation of Crown Prosecutor Donald Masson saved a 16-year-old youth from a jail term Thursday. The youth was charged with stealing a wallet containing $140, the property of Harry Mariymshyn, 12244 58 street.

Magistrate Millar said it was only on the recommendation of the Crown Prosecutor that he was granting a three-month remand in order that the lad might make restitution before receiving sentence, otherwise he would have made it a jail term.

"Free" Decorating Plan Brings Fine

"Free" paint jobs on suites cost Howard Brooker, proprietor of the Berkeley Apartments, 10024 96 avenue, a conviction in city police court Wednesday afternoon. He was fined $25 and costs under Wartime Prices and Trade Board regulations. Three witnesses testified that Brooker inferred to them that he would not rent them suites in his apartment unless they were willing to pay for decorating.

Thrills a-plenty featured the opening Wednesday night at the Arena, of the annual Edmonton Exhibition Association's light horse show sponsored by the Kinsmen Club. In the top picture, Mayor Harry Ainlay is shown presenting the challenge trophy to Audrey Gardner, Calgary, who won the gelding Tam O'Shanter with the greatest number of mare-or gelding-which had not previously won a prize at a Class A horse show. Below is Sue Ellen Congdon, who won third place for costuming in the fancy dress parade. The youngest competitor in the show, she is shown riding her Shetland pony.

Competition Is Keen

Jumping Highlights Horse Show Opening

Thrilling jumping performances by some of the best hunters ever seen in an Edmonton show ring, a spill, and many near spills thrilled an audience of more than 1,000 Wednesday night at the opening night of the Edmonton Exhibition Association's light horse show sponsored by the Kinsmen Club.

COMPETITION was keen in all classes and the judge, Dr. E. Wilson, Toronto, did not complete his task until after midnight when the curtain was rung down on the final event, the $300 knock down and out sweepstake for the Edmonton Kinsmen challenge trophy.

A stirring tie resulted from the jumping in the first round when the British Columbia horse, Home Service, owned by F. H. Wilmot, Faulkland, and ridden by A. Pole; High Sierra, owned by London and Edginton, Lamont, and ridden by Jack London of Edmonton; Anthony Adverse from the same stable ridden by Ray Edginton, Edmonton; and Cecil H. Chapman's Aloha, ridden by Miss Nancy Short tied with two Calgary owned entries.

The two Calgary horses were Big Red, owned and ridden by Miss Joy Patterson and Adeleno, owned and ridden by Miss Doris Littlewood. Big Red placed second in this event last year.

IN THE JUMP off Miss Nan Short and Aloha thrilled the audience as she swept into first place with a total of 14 points, and Miss Patterson brought Big Red through with 12 points for second place. Third place went to the British Columbia horse, Home Service, with the two London and Edginton horses, and Miss Littlewood's Adeleno tieing for fourth place.

Coal Men Talk Prices

Edmonton coal operators were in conference Thursday with the city commissioners on proposed increases in the price of coal following the removal of the subsidy paid by the Dominion government.

While no information was released on the conference it is understood the operators are requesting the commissioners for coal price increases that would raise the price of fuel in the city approximately $25,000 annually.

They are also asking that the city confirm purchases for power plant requirements to Edmonton and district mines.

Plan Reception For Track Athletes

At the request of the city recreation commissioner, the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce has appointed an advisory committee to assist in arrangements for the reception of athletes from many parts of North America when they converge on Edmonton July 28-30 on the Dominion track and field meet.

W. B. Gowan, T. A. Shandro and J. R. Starky will form the chamber's advisory committee and will work in co-operation with the recreation commission.

Successful contestants in the Edmonton field meet will be among those selected for competition at the next Olympic games, to be held in London in 1948.

Veterinary Branch Ready With Vaccine

Should there be an outbreak of sleeping sickness among horses in the province of Alberta, the government veterinary's branch has machinery ready for the vaccination of the animals, Dr. P. H. Talbot, provincial veterinarian, said Thursday.

He recalled that there had been no outbreak of the disease in Alberta nor Saskatchewan last summer and said there was no reason to suppose that such an outbreak would occur this year.

In his opinion the disease runs in cycles, one of which reaches its peak two summers ago.

He was commenting on a report from Saskatoon that Dr. J. G. Rempel, biologist of the university of Saskatchewan, has warned farmers in that province to drain sloughs and dry up pools in order to cut down on the mosquito population.

Bill Tobin Here

Three CAC Juniors Get Chicago Tryouts

Three hockey players who performed with the Edmonton junior Canadians last season, Don Slater, Eddie Thomas and Harry Groves, will try out with the NHL Chicago Black Hawk club next fall, President W. J. "Bill" Tobin of the Black Hawks, said here Thursday.

President Tobin, who emphasized for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Western Canada Professional Hockey league, is completing a hockey-business tour of western Canada. He is accompanied by Cecil "Tiny" Thompson, famous Boston Bruin goalie and now chief scout for the Chicago team.

Harry Groves, first Canadian junior winner for the past season, has already been signed to a Black Hawk contract, President Tobin revealed.

Eddie Thomas and Don Slater, who pass the junior age limit the year will try out at the Chicago training camp next fall. There is a chance that all three of these players will join the Kansas City, United States Hockey League farm club of the Black Hawks next season.

Tobin is very high on Ty Thomas, older brother of Eddie Thomas, who played with the Edmonton Senior Flyers hockey club last season.

"I believe that Ty Thomas is probably good enough to step right into the National Hockey League but his studies at the university will keep him out of pro hockey," the Black Hawk president said.

While in the city Mr. Tobin will confer with Ken Hems, manager of the junior Canadians.

Young Canadian hockey players have the best opportunity in the NHL now, Tobin declared. The former Edmonton goalie said players of the better players in the NHL now run around $6,000 to $6,200 a season with lumbers and Canada will always produce about 90 per cent of the players needed in the NHL, he pointed out.

Hockey rinks are mushrooming all over the States.

Considerable rebuilding will have to be done on the Black Hawk club when finished last in the league race this season.

Emile "The Cat" Francis, goalkeeper of the Regina Capitals, who joined Black Hawks late last season will likely stick in the big time.

It was hard luck for a kid like Francis to be dumped suddenly into top league competition. He played some great games for us and got better as the season progressed," Tobin declared. He is very willing to learn, however, and is well liked by his teammates and the fans.

W. J. TOBIN

Bill Gadsby, rugged defence player from Edmonton who starred on the junior Canadians last season has a "magnificent future" in the big leagues, Tobin said.

Chicago badly needs another good defence man or two. Lumley can, and is now considering the possible to buy seasoned players. There are a couple of NHL players I would gladly pay $40,000 for but you just can't buy them," Tobin explained. But junior graduates may develop there soon enough.

Lawrence Campbell, former Edmonton barrister and hockey referee is making a good job of being president of the NHL, Tobin said.

Leaving Max Bentley, leading NHL scorer last season and star Black Hawk forward, off the official all-star lineup, made no friends with Tobin.

"I don't see how they could have missed Max. To make it worse for Bentley there is a $1,000 bonus for being selected on the all-star team. So I mailed Max a cheque for $1,000," Tobin concluded.

The Chicago club president is returning east Thursday night.

First Broadcast May 1

North Radio Station Offers Free Services

Radio station CHAK, Aklavik, recently granted a broadcasting license, is now offering a special service to residents within a radius of 100 miles of the northern port, it was learned yesterday at Edmonton headquarters of the Army's Northwest Territories and Yukon radio service.

The station, assembled at his own expense by Sgt.-Maj. A. A. MacLeod and his staff, offers its services free to the people of the north. It broadcasts on frequency of 1220 kilocycles and is powered at 30 watts.

THOUGH THE license is issued to the Canadian Army, the army supplies only the power and the housing for the equipment. The men at the station donate their time and have paid for the equipment themselves.

On the same voluntary service lines as army broadcasting station CFWH, operating in Whitehorse, Y. T., the 30-watt station held its first official broadcast May 1. The first day's broadcast was highlighted by news broadcasts, a request program, and messages from townfolk to their kin, who could not be reached without many days travel by dog team.

THOUGH A personal message program town residents, businessmen and natives will be able to exchange messages by telephone in surrounding areas of the Mackenzie Delta.

Trappers in cabins along their traplines, Eskimos and Indians gathered at trading posts, reindeer herders isolated by endless plains of snow, and the 156 inhabitants of Aklavik will have for the first time a regular radio service.

Originally conceived as a means of transmitting emergency messages to people in the area, the station will carry amateur and police programs, dance music, and church services, as well as entertainment messages every Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Sgt. Maj. MacLeod of Vancouver started construction six months ago with pieces of an home set. He was helped by four other gunners: Sgt. J. W. Willis, Bedford, Nova Scotia; Cpl. S. W. Morley, Berkeley, Calif.; Signmn. M. J. Benoit, Vegreville, Alta., and Pte. G. E. Stonier, Glace Bay, N.S.

Bridge

By William E. McKenney

In the Western Pennsylvania Tournament at Pittsburgh there were 20 teams-of-four and four of them tied for first. Under regulations of the American Contract Bridge League, all four teams receive full Master Point awards.

Closeness of the match will probably result in even larger attendance at the Pennsylvania State Tournament to be held in Pittsburgh in November.

Today's hand helped Clare H. "Corky" Smith and his teammates tie for first place in the Western Pennsylvania team event. I know that rubber bridge players will not advocate going down 1400 points to save anything, but in tournament bridge if your opponents can make a small slam vulnerable for a score of 1430 points your side can go down five tricks vulnerable and you will be minus only 500 points. Therefore you can win the South is 20 points.

Smith and he had not expected to go down five tricks overall as three diamonds showed at least a four card diamond suit, and Smith (East) held five diamonds himself and therefore his partner could not have more than one or two missing diamonds. The bid of 6 spades and the jump to six spades gave North and South most of the suit and South's original one or two hearts marked him with six or seven hearts. West's subsequent overcall of three clubs announced at least a seven card suit.

So South reasoned that even if East could ruff two hearts and two diamonds, they would be good on a finesse and he was quite sure that two opponents could make six spades.

Of course he was correct. The only thing that East and West could take against six spades was the ace of clubs, while at seven clubs East and West lost the diamond ace, a diamond ruff, two hearts and a spade.

Horse Show

The Chapman horse now passes automatically into the final for this event to be held on Saturday night.

Miss Patterson, with Honor Bright, took first place in the novice or gelding class, under 15.2 hands, with Miss Josie Welsh, Bragg Creek placing second on Nicoline a winner in the class for saddle horses the rider to have won a first or second prize prior to the show.

THIRD PLACE in this class went to C. J. Macara's Stardust, the Calgary horse just placing ahead of Ambrose Advance, shown by Miss E. Kellog, Lamont.

In the ex-service lady or gentleman special contest, an innovation at the show, the first prize was taken by Miss Doris Littlewood with Royal Mark, another Calgary entry, that of C. J. Macara taking second money with Stardust, and Miss Diana Gainor, Calgary, getting the nod for third place with Tanh-He.

Highland Chief, exhibited by Miss Demaris Bateh, Edmonton, won the open saddle class for mare or gelding exceeding 16 hands, with The Bard shown by Miss Agnes Hammond, Cochrane, placing second and Mr. Kaplan's Champagne filling third slot.

THE BURNS' FAMILY of Piedmont swept the boards in the carriage horse class for stallion, mare or gelding three years old and over exceeding 142 hands, Bobbie Burns drove Annsboro Vreen, to victory over Annsboro Rose, exhibited by his wife, while Annsboro Princess driven by Jack Burns, placed third. Knight Imperialist exhibited by Mrs. R. T. Cole, was given the fourth place.

The Burns family again came into the limelight in the tandem driving class taking first place with Skipper and Vreen with Bobbie handling the ribbons. Second place went to the Mrs. R. T. Cole entry, and Annsboro Rose and Annsboro Princess of the Burns stable taking the third prize.

Tam O'Shanter, owned by P. E. Adamson, Marwayne and ridden by Miss Audrey Gardner, Pigeon Creek, Calgary, won the hunter class for mare or gelding exceeding 142 hands that has not won a first or second prize at any "class A" horse show at date of closing of entries.

THIS EVENT carried with it the challenge trophy presented by a group interested in novice hunters, the cup being presented by Mayor Harry Ainlay, who incidently showed he was no stranger to horses, when he rode into the arena for the colorful opening ceremony.

Second place in this event went to The Bard owned by Miss Agnes Hammond, Cochrane, and ridden by Desmond Holden of Midnapore Ranger, shown by Mayland Ltd., Calgary, and ridden by Miss Joyce Willans, Calgary horsewoman, took third prize, and Brown Derby from the same stable placed fourth.

FIRST PLACE in the Pixley challenge cup competition was taken by Miss Doris Littlewood's Ardeleno, ridden by its owner, second place going to Tiny Toes owned by F. M. Holden, Midnapore, and ridden by the owner's son, Desmond. Miss Littlewood's second entry The Ghost, was placed third, as the Gardner Stable's Why Not [illegible]rth.

The Pixley Cup was presented to Miss Gardner by Mrs. Willa Lamb.

The opening ceremony was colorful as horses entered the ring with their riders carrying the Canadian, British and American flags. Mayor Ainlay took part in the ceremony and broadcast from the saddle an appeal to Edmontonians and district residents to patronize the show, assist the Kinsmen club in their sponsorship. He said proceeds of the show would be given to the Memorial Scholarship Fund.

ONE OF THE MOST attractive events of the evening was the fancy dress parade in which Miss Margaret Dillon, Edmonton took first place, and Anthony Sheppard gained second with his representation of a Mexican. This rider was mounted on a mule. Third place went to tiny six-year-old Sue Ellen Congdon, with Miss Maureen McLean taking the fourth place.

The first heat of the musical chairs sweepstake went to Charlie Wallish. Clive Heeks placing second, and Garnet Ferguson third.

The judging will continue through Saturday when the finals in the jumping sweepstake and the musical chairs competition will be features of the closing night.

Following are the results of the afternoon judging Wednesday.

Tests Reveal Oil No. 3 Leduc Well

Imperial Oil Company's No. 3 Leduc well in a test late Wednesday revealed its second confidences of oil with a 20 foot column of oil and gas cut mud at the 5,308 level. This was accomplished by quarter of a million cubic feet of dry gas. Another core test was being made at press time.

Two hundred and forty-six sacks of cement have been poured into the No. 2 well, closing it off from a stratum of salt water. When this is set it will be drilled to accomodate a 5½-inch casing as the first step in bringing it into production. This will probably not be before the beginning of the week, officials said.

The No. 4 well is now nearly one mile in depth and crews are still standing for tell-tale signs of porosity, but no tests have been made up to the present.

The company's No. 1 discovery well under controlled production is flowing at the rate of 263 barrels every 24 hours, local headquarters stated.

Spudded in about 10 days ago the No. 5 hole is now down nearly 1,000 feet.

Resources Pact Agreement Near

Alberta's suggested changes to the agreement between the Dominion and provincial governments on the conservation of water resources on the east slope of the Rockies, have been forwarded to Ottawa, Premier Ernest Manning revealed Thursday.

All changes made by the province to the draft agreement were of a minor nature and were inserted at the suggestion of the attorney-general's department and the water resources branch.

Under the terms of the agreement, the province undertakes to spend an annual minimum of approximately $125,000, but capital expenditures by the federal government would soar into the millions.

When the agreement is signed by Ottawa officials, and returned here for final signing by the province, it is likely that an announcement will be made of the personnel of a three-man commission to administer the measure.

Of these the federal government will appoint the chairman and one member and the province select the third commissioner.

Good Neighbors Assist Farmer

Everyone knows of the good neighbor policy that the United States is following. But there is an example of good neighbors in Canada.

Farmer Tommy Forrest, who lives about 15 miles north west of Coronation, was hurt in a farming accident some time ago, and he wasn't able to start his spring seeding.

Two days ago his friends from the Bulwark, Brownfield, and Talbat districts moved en masse to Tommy's farm. In one day they worked over 360 acres of land and seeded 140 acres. In addition they built five miles of fencing.

They did the work with 15 tractors, four cultivators, two sets of harrows, and three trucks. And it is thought the work they did is the largest of that nature ever undertaken in Alberta.

This is the second time his friends have come to Tommy's help. Two years ago he was unable to harvest his crops, so his neighbors came to the rescue. They took off all the crop on the Forrest farm.

Utilities Company Plans Expansion

Steady expansion of electric power and light is being brought to Northern Alberta by Northland Utilities Ltd., and this year more than 25 miles of line is being built between Berwyn and Fairview, and the power plant at Peace River is being expanded to meet the additional requirements of its territory, Walter H. Schlosser, president of the company, stated Thursday. The extensions will cost approximately $100,000.

The transmission line being built will service Brownvale, Whitelaw and Blue Sky districts, and will connect up with a great many farm properties on the line.

Mr. Schlosser said that consideration of farm power development would be carried out if transformers and other materials were available.

A 225 horsepower addition is being made to the Peace River plant, Mr. Schlosser stated. This machine is so constructed that it can be switched to a gas consumer if the drilling now being carried out near Peace River is successful in locating gas.

CCF Group Leaves Provincial Party

Despite all efforts of the Alberta provincial executive of the CCF to heal the party split which developed in Calgary recently, Aid. J. N. H. Morrison, leader of one of the warring sections in Calgary, has formed a rival organization in the southern city and thereby he, and others joining his organization, have withdrawn themselves from membership in the CCF party. It was announced Thursday by John King, provincial secretary of the party.

In the statement issued by Mr King on behalf of the executive of the party he states that "Ald. Morrison made it clear that he was not prepared to co-operate in the attainment of the healing of the rupture in the party," and that at meetings with the executive he had expressed the opinion that "one faction or the other must be liquidated."

The statement says that "following this policy through to its logical conclusion he has now with the support of a faction of the Calgary membership, withdrawn from the CCF to form a rival organization."

The split in the party's membership in Calgary followed a meeting in October last year in which there was a dispute about the count of the vote on a resolution respecting the participation of the CCF party in civic politics.

Both parties to the dispute asked the central executive of the party to settle the matter, but all efforts of that body failed to avert the break away of Ald. Morrison and his followers.

John King Weds English Bride

Pastel snapdragons at Erskine United Church Wednesday evening formed the background for the wedding of Miss Marjorie Hesses, daughter of Mrs. Percy Hesses and the late Mr. Hesses of Bolton, Lancashire, Eng., to John Arthur King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack King of Edmonton. The Rev. J. A. Prentice officiated. The bride arrived from across England

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by Robert Smart, the bride was a vision in white French crepe, gathered to a drape at one side in Juliet fashion, with long sleeves ending in tiny points over the wrists. Satin and lace-length veil of net caught to her head by a wreath of white carnations. She carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses and pale pink carnations.

Bridesmaid was Miss Irene King, sister of the bridegroom who chose pink sheer with matching chapel veil. She carried pink carnation bouquet. Bruce Harper was best man and the ushers were George Cultweehouse and Don Ian Chester. Miss Gladys Cultweehouse played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Miss Dorothy McMillan sang I'll Walk Beside You.

After the ceremony a reception to 70 guests was held.

To receive, Mrs. King, mother of the bridegroom chose light blue crepe. Her hat was black straw and her accessories black. She wore a corsage of pink carnations and deep pink sweet peas.

THE BRIDE'S table was set with white linen and centred by a three-tier wedding cake, flanked by vases of pastel snapdragons and white tapers. Mrs. G. Hart poured coffee while assisting in serving were the Misses Mary White, Edith Small, Doreen Maruenko and Doreen King, sister of the bridegroom. Toast to the bride was proposed by Robert Jackson. Several cables of good wishes from England were read.

For a honeymoon trip to Vernon the bride changed to a two piece wool coral suit, with brown brit hat trimmed with turquoise and topcoat of light tone. Her corsage was of pale pink carnations and sweet peas. Later the couple will reside in Edmonton.

Members of the Faculty Women's Club were hostesses.

Mrs. R. B. Sandaur, president of the club assisted in receiving and general conveners were Mrs. A. W. Henry and Mrs. G. B. Sanford. Six hundred graduates with their parents and friends were among the tea guests.

Family of Air Vice Marshal Takes Up Residence in City

"Everyone in Winnipeg told us we would like Edmonton and we do," said Mrs. K. M. Guthrie, wife of Air Vice Marshal K. M. Guthrie CB, CBE, who with her daughter, Miss Ann Guthrie, arrived in Edmonton this week from Winnipeg and have taken up residence at North West Air Command.

"WE LOVE the view over the Macdonald Valley. So do grandparents and Edmonton is farther ahead than Winnipeg with the trees and grass coming out and green. We are sorry to leave Winnipeg but are in love with Edmonton already," she said. This is their first visit to the capital.

The air vice marshal has been with the air force for 30 years and Mrs. Guthrie has been an "air force wife" for 29 years. She has resided with her husband in Canada, Newfoundland and England and lived on many stations. She and her husband are originally from Ottawa, where they were married.

MRS. GUTHRIE has been active in the Air Force Women's Auxiliary and worked for the prisoners of war of the air force, packing parcels for them.

Ann has been studying arts at the University of Manitoba for two years and plans to enter the University of Alberta in the fall. She is a keen rider and fond of tennis and badminton.

The slender, vivacious "air force wife" thinks more like a young college student than her mother and the conversation between the two was evident when Ann sacked her mother. Ker.

HOMOGENIZED BABY FOODS RATE TOPS IN FEEDING TESTS
Libby's Baby Foods are Digested in about 30 minutes, while foods which are only strained require Two Hours
The moment you open a Libby container, you'll see these Baby Foods are different.
Libby's are super-smooth, because they are the only baby foods which are Homogenized. This exclusive Libby process breaks up coarse fibres. It also opens up tough cell walls so that all the nourishment contained in the food is quickly digested—and all you get.
The result, proved in clinical and laboratory tests, are these: that baby can digest Libby's Foods in about thirty minutes, as compared with two hours for foods which are only strained; that baby gets more nourishment out of the same amount of food when he eats Libby's.
These claims can be made only for Libby's Baby Foods because only Libby's are Homogenized.
FREE BOOKLET on Infant Feeding
Be up-to-date on infant feeding. Send your name and address to Libby's, Chatham, Ontario, and receive a free copy of the informative booklet, "Healthful Feeding for Your Baby".

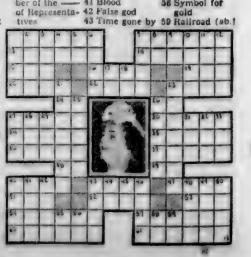
Answer to Previous Puzzle



By DOROTHY DIX

Possessive Women Create Heartaches

One of the commonest characteristics of women and the one that is at the bottom of more of their troubles than anything else is possessiveness. They are monopolistic by nature and constitutionally unable to give and take in their relationship with others, whether these be their husbands and wives, or their children, or friends.

They are bound to absorb those they love, body and soul, and we see this illustrated every day in a thousand different ways. Take marriage, which is the source of most of women's real heartbreak, as an example of this. More perfectly good marriages are ruined by the possessiveness of wives and by their determination not to let their husbands have any interests, or even any thought of anything but them than by any other cause.

THEY DON'T wait for their husbands to commit any crime against them. They anticipate it. They see a rival in every woman who crosses their husbands' path. If their husbands are polite to their dinner partners, they suspect an intrigue at once. And if Friend Husband takes any woman, from his grandmother down to a bobby-soxer, to lunch, they salt him down with their tears. Goodness only knows how many men are driven to philandering by possessive wives.

Next to the possessive wife as a troublemaker is the possessive mother who never cuts her apron strings and lets her children have any life of their own. She can't bear to think of her darlings ever loving anyone but herself; so she isolates her daughters from every young man who comes a-courting, and she has hysterics every time her son so much as looks at a pretty girl.

If any of her children even talk about following some career that would take them away from her, she shuts the door of opportunity in their faces by taking to her bed and threatening to die. Whenever you see a home that is filled with old maids and old bachelors, all bitter, frustrated men and women, you are sure to find a possessive mother behind the scene.

NOR IS THIS all the harm that the possessive mother does. She is first aid to divorce and does more to break up her children's homes than all the combined wolves and sirens who are ever named as corespondents. Many a man would never find out that his silly little bird-brained wife wasn't his real soul mate if his mother didn't call his attention continually to what a poor manager she is and what awful pies she makes.

And many a wife would stick to a high-tempered husband, who feeds her on filet mignon and dresses her in silks and satins, if Mother didn't weep over her and "poor darling" her every time she has a squabble with hubby, and didn't keep urging her to come back to Mother, who understands her.

And why is it that two women, no matter what fine and noble characters they possess, never live in peace in the same house? It is possessiveness again. Each one is determined to be the boss and the sole and undisputed authority and to run things her own way.

Queer things, women, aren't they?

Possible Outbreak Smallpox Feared

FOSTORIA, C., May 15.—(AP)—Vaccine was sent to Fostoria from four cities yesterday to curb a possible outbreak of smallpox which has resulted in the death of a 75-year-old Mexican and exposure of hundreds of other persons. Health authorities found that Emanuel Ibarra, who died here Tuesday, had come to Fostoria from Mexico with a truckload of other Mexican workers now scattered over northwestern Ohio.

Why Grow Old?

If you want always to appear young and interesting, like Actress Virginia Hunter, above, find new things to think about. A new hobby will help.

By Josephine Lowman

Recently "Why Grow Old?" has been bringing you ideas and hobbies and modes of thought which some of today's most attractive and successful women have found intriguing. Sometimes they are the wives of famous men and often they are well-known in their own right, but universally they are women who find time to live a rich and varied fascinating life.

Mrs. Jasch Veissi, wife of the distinguished violist, says that humdrum affairs only seem dull when one does not vary them with other activities. "When things seem gray and monotonous," she says, "the thing to do is to seek some outlet for mental activity—something different to think about. For some reason, a new interest helps make all the old ones more enjoyable."

Mrs. Veissi was the former Harriet Maxwell. She is an accomplished musician and often joins her husband in informal duets. Recently she has taken up photography and spends many happy hours in the little dark room she has fitted up. She has won several prizes lately. This happy, vibrant woman is also president of her garden club and makes a game of her champion roses. These two hobbies offer many happy hours to women everywhere.

Mrs. Veissi says there are lots of outlets for minds that are all-demand up with no place to go and suggests that you take the first step toward a new hobby if you are feeling drab. The more you learn about your hobby, says Mrs. Veissi, the more fun it will be and whether you work alone or in a group where you will see new faces or old faces doing new things, you will find the world will seem to offer more and everything will take on a new flavor."

This is the theory this column has been preaching for a long time but it is nice to hear about some of the people who have put similar beliefs into practice.

If you wish to have my list of hobbies send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 66 to Josephine Lowman, in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Your Baby and Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The play of two small children is seldom ideal from an adult's standpoint. Children of two, or thereabouts, are indifferent to other children, either they stand and stare at what the other child does, or they turn and become immersed in their own playing, ignoring the small playmate.

Again, they act like stubborn chicks demanding the same worm and no matter what toy the other child has, the strongest or more aggressive child will want it from him.

It is useless to be discouraged at such behavior. All children are selfish long before they have discovered the personal benefits of unselfishness. If they are not conditioned to being called selfish they cease to react to it and keep on being selfish because that is what people expect of them.

If some adult always steps in and solves their playtime difficulties they expect that someone always will and they stand and cry until help comes. A little hair-pulling and fist-snatching is better than to give a child the idea that only adults can solve conflicts. The child must learn what happens when he gives in; what happens when he proffers one toy for another; what happens when two children take turns enjoying a toy.

His mother, meanwhile, will tell him how to act in order to be happiest and then leave him alone when possible to work out these suggestions.

If the child is taking longer than usual to learn how to share, then provide toys to be used when there are guests.

The small host will have no rights in these toys but will be in unchallenged possession of his own. It is at this moment when he sees the small guest playing happily with the basket or box of toys presented to him, that he gets a glimmer of how much fun it might be if he would trade toys. This is better than a dozen lectures.

All children quarrel, all children snatch toys, some of them grab all they can get and stand guard over them, unable to enjoy them in fearful are they of their loss. But all such attitudes weaken as the child has opportunities for play with the other children and is told, shown and lives through the experiences, which prove to him that unselfishness is personally profitable.

Our leaflet No 69, "Selfishness and Jealousy," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

EARLY RAILWAY PASSENGER CARS

The first railroad passenger coaches were commonly nothing more than stagecoaches mounted on four iron wheels, with some of the passengers required to sit on the roof, where they were forced to endure the dense smoke which poured from the smokestack of the wood-and-pitch-burning engine.

Then came larger coaches, resembling big vans about the size of our early streetcars. These were lighted by tallow candles which frequently dripped on the already uncomfortable passengers seated on hard wooden seats. During the winter, a wood-burning stove placed at one end of each car provided a little uneven heat. Somewhat later, hot-water pipes running down the length of the car were attached to the stove. This was an improvement.

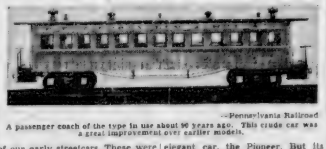
One of the first American sleeping cars, the "Chambersburg," used 1837-1868 between Harrisburg and Chambersburg, Pa.



—Pennsylvania Railroad

A passenger coach of the type in use about 90 years ago. This crude car was a great improvement over earlier models.

By 1850, travel was made much more pleasant through the placing of springs under the cars, and ventilators in the ceilings. In 1887, the electrically lighted coach and the closed vestibule car came. During the early part of the 20th century, the all-steel car was introduced.

Travel on the first trains in America was slow and distances were relatively great. Because of such conditions, sleeping-cars of sorts were provided during 1836. They were merely coaches divided into four compartments, with banks ranged in two and even three tiers along the walls. Bedclothes were not provided, and toilet facilities were limited to a basin and a pail of water in the rear of each car. It was not until 1858 that anything even remotely resembling a modern sleeper appeared. In that year, a young engineer named George Pullman remodeled two coaches, fitting them with ten sleeping sections finished in cherry wood with plush upholstered seats. Light was provided by oil lamps and heat by a box stove. This early experiment proved so successful that in 1864 Pullman built a new elegant car, the Pioneer. But its great size made it impossible to get it to many station platforms.

Upon the death of President Lincoln, the Pioneer was chartered by the Government to carry his body from Chicago to Springfield. This compelled the railroad to alter certain station platforms, and with it a comparatively short time, railroads throughout the country began altering their equipment to make use of cars similar to the Pioneer.

In 1868, the first modern dining car was introduced. Parlor and smoking cars soon followed. These new cars were beautifully furnished with thick carpets and cushioned seats.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mother, Mrs. Sophie Rogier, who passed away May 15, 1946.
Upright and faithful in all her ways,
A wonderful character to the end of her days,
A loving mother, true and kind,
What a beautiful memory she left behind.
—Ever remembered by her loving husband, George Rogier and daughters Therese and Olivine, son-in-law Verden and grandchildren, George and Carol.

In memory of Frank Luck, who passed away May 15, 1946.
Time speeds on, one year has passed,
Since death its gloom, its shadow cast.
The blow was great, the shock severe,
We little thought his death so near,
Only those that have lost can tell
The sorrow of parting without farewell.
—Ever remembered by Daisy Duncan, and his wife.

In loving memory of Mr. Frank Luck who passed away May 15, 1946.
Deep in the heart lies a picture,
Of a loved one laid to rest,
In memory's frame we shall keep it,
Because he was one of the best.
—Ever remembered by his son, daughter-in-law and grandson, Frank, Cecilia and Gary Luck of Jasper, Alberta.

Set All-Time High Open Mart Steers

PICTURE BUTTE, (CP) — Choice steers sold at an open market all-time high in southern Alberta Wednesday when R. L. MacMillan, operator of a feedlot here sold long-fed steers to a packer buyer at 16.25 cents a pound. (Show cattle, when ceilings were removed have sold higher.)

The previous high of the open market was established after the first world war when the Chicago market opened to Canadian producers and steers from south Alberta ranges sold as high as 16 cents.

The sale of some 1,200 cattle was the largest of the series of spring auctions, a new method of selling feed lot cattle in the south of the province.

Picture Butte is 12 miles north of Lethbridge.
